NAZIS CLAIM HOLD ON STALINGRAD

Fate of Southwest Pacific Hangs on Solomons

U. S. Planes Raid Japs' Kiska Base

Americans Extend Hold Upon Andreanoff Group Without Any Resistance

Struggle Grows

Jap Ships, Big Guns and Planes Attack Guadalcanal

By ROGER D. GREENE
(Associated Press War Editor)

American and Japanese forces were believed locked in a series of deadly hide-and-seek battles on land, at sea and in the air in the lower Solomon Islands today, with the fate of perhaps the whole southwest Pacific hanging in the balance.

Meanwhile, the Alaska defense command disclosed that American troops extending their hold on the Aleutians had taken over another island in the Andreanof group, within easy bombing range of the last remaining Japanese base at Kiska.

A communique said a Japanese plane dropped two bombs on the new encampment but the missiles fell far from the target. No casualties were suffered.

The announcement said the troops met no resistance in making a landing on the island.

Coupled with this move to tighten a net around the invaders, the navy in Washington announced that American warplanes attacked the Japanese camp at Kiska on Wednesday, starting many large fires and destroying three seaplanes on the water.

The navy said army Liberator bombers, escorted by twin-engined lightning fighters, rained incendiary bombs on the enemy stronghold.

Three beached and two sunken ships, hit in previous raids, were observed at Kiska.

Tokyo maintained silence on the battle of the Solomons and there was no indication of the trend of the fighting.

A powerful armada of Japanese battleships, cruisers and destroyers—the first capital ships risked by Japan in the struggle for the 900-mile-long archipelago — was reported maneuvering near Savo Island, immediately north of Guadalcanal Island, while Japanese bombers furiously attempted to knock out the key Guadalcanal air base.

The navy in Washington announced that 27 enemy bombers attacked the flying field within the last 24 hours, following up an earlier bombardment by Japanese naval guns.

But the invaders were paying a heavy toll in ships and lives, as indicated by a Navy report that three enemy transports previously damaged by bombs had been beached by the Japanese and still were burning.

In addition, Gen. Douglas Mac Arthur's headquarters reported that Allied bombers attacking the enemy's far-drawn communication lines in the northern Solomons had seriously damaged Japanese light cruiser off the southern tip of Bougainville Island.

While Emperor Hirohito worshipped at the innermost sanctuary of the Yasukuni Shrine in Tokyo, seeking the "peaceful repose of 15,021 newly deified heroes," the Mikado's warriors on Guadalcanal faced the guns of U. S. Marines reinforced by regular American Army troops and planes.

Strong United States naval forces were presumably backing up the defenders and striking at the enemy fleet in the maze of islands.

"Even the Jap will agree that we have both the men and the tools for the task," was the confident expression voiced by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet.

With a battlefield about the size of New York's Long Island, blanketed with dense jungles and studded with hills, the reinforced Japanese were reported holding strong positions on the island while American troops apparently moved up to the attack.

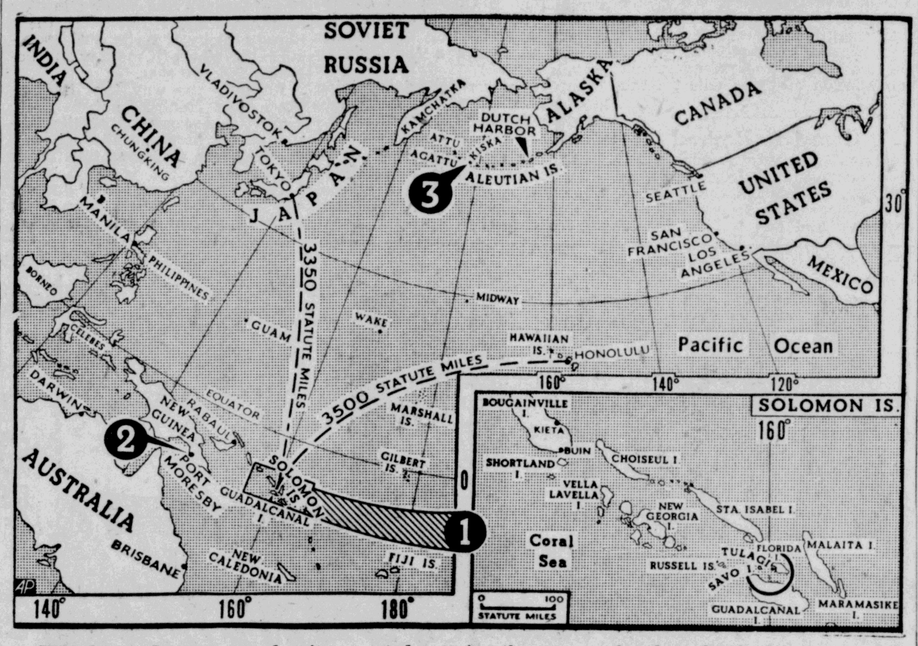

The Navy indicated earlier that U. S. ground forces had taken the initiative, inflecting heavy casualties on the Japanese in a two-day offensive.

F. D. R. Says Spending Is 78 Billions

War Outlays Total 74 Billions for Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1943

Peak Is Cut

Non-War Spending Is One-Third Less Than 1939 Peak

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—President Roosevelt told Congress today that federal cash expenditures for war in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, now were estimated at $74,000,000,000 and non-war outlays at $4,194,000,000.

In addition, interest on the public debt in this 12-month period was estimated at $1,850,000,000 to bring aggregate federal outlays for the current fiscal period to $80,044,000,000.

Non-war expenditures of the government, Mr. Roosevelt reported, have been cut more than a third from their 1939 peak.

The Chief Executive submitted a 96-page analysis of trends of non-war governmental spending which showed that from a peak of $6,516,000,000 in 1939 they had dropped 36.5 per cent. Those estimated for this year are nearly $1,000,000,000 under the figure for the last fiscal period. They compared with a low of $2,454,000,000 in 1933.

Covering Mr. Roosevelt's entire tenure in the White House, the report showed war expenditures had jumped upward from a low of $578,000,000 in 1934, passing the billion dollar mark for the first time in 1938. The total for the 1941 fiscal year was $6,301,000,000 and for the last fiscal year, subject to minor final adjustments, $26,011,000,000.

The report was prepared by the budget director, and Mr. Roosevelt said in an accompanying message to Congress that it shows the "important reductions which have been made without sacrificing humanitarian considerations." He sent it to Congress for its information, and made no request for any action.

Some Exclusions Noted

The total figures excluded expenditures by government corporations and credit agencies. It was estimated that for war activities their expenditures would exceed receipts by about $4,000,000,000 and that for non-war activities there would be a $59,000,000 excess of receipts over expenditures.

The $74,000,000,000 total for war expenditures is upwards of $20,000,000,000 more than the government expected to spend when the Chief Executive sent his annual budget message to Congress last January. The new revision was made early this month.

Asked at a press conference whether the increase was related to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau's statement that an additional $6,000,000,000 in taxes will be needed even after the big revenue bill pending in Congress is enacted, the President said he had not boned up on that subject.

The report noted that people were writing the President or various government officials emphasizing that, since they were asked to cut civilian expenditures to aid the war effort, the government should "pull in its belt" more tightly.

It recalled, too, that two congressional committees had recommended in recent months a cut in non-war spending and that the subject had figured frequently in congressional debate.

Recently letters from citizens have emphasized, the report said, an increase in non-military expenditures since 1932 and have insisted that this increase be eliminated. Other letters, it said, had protested curtailments. And, it

Solomons Assault Vies With Caucasian Drive

British Attention Is Focused Upon Both Actions as Having Sharp Bearing on American Efforts

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
(Wide World War Analyst)

London, Oct. 16—The battle of the Solomons is vying with the now-or-never Nazi assault on the Caucasus in British attention, since military experts here recognize that the trend of the Pacific fighting might affect the extent of America's immediate concentration on the primary objective—the smashing of Germany.

London newspapers, despite the fact that most of them are reduced to four pages or the equivalent in format, today are running three and four columns under front page headlines with maps on the Japanese offensive.

Thus we have it brought home to us that the allied fighting front extending around the vast perimeter within which the enemy operates on much shorter lines is indeed a sensitive thing. Britain as well as America, is vibrating with the shock of the clash in the Pacific.

Meanwhile, Hitler is continuing with modifications of his race against time to consolidate his position in southwestern Russia before winter overtakes him. The attack on Stalingrad goes on, but the Nazi chief apparently has abandoned, at least for the moment, his great massed attacks for fierce but smaller thrusts calculated to capture strategic points one by one.

As predicted in previous dispatches, the fuehrer also is increasing his effort to secure a line of Caucasus mountain foothills running east and west across the isthmus between the Black and Caspian Seas. Fighting is particularly heavy in the Mozdok zone on the Caspian side and in the Novorossisk sector on the west, where the Boche is trying desperately to reach Tuapse on the Black Sea.

Night Fight Puts Nazis Way Ahead

Germans Reach Banks of Volga, Capture Tractor Factory as Crisis Grows

Fight Continues

Soviet Forces Battle as Though Nothing Had Happened

(By The Associated Press)

Adolf Hitler's siege armies, suddenly renewing the fury of their 53-day-old assault on Stalingrad, reported today they had broken through to the Volga in a violent night attack, occupied half the city and captured the big Dzerzhinsky tractor factory in the northwest sector.

Once again, a grave crisis appeared to be developing in the struggle for the ruined Volga metropolis as the Russians acknowledged that German tanks and infantry had knifed dangerously into Soviet defense lines.

Nevertheless, German military quarters admitted that the Red Army was "continuing to fight as if nothing had happened."

These quarters also reported that the Russians were launching relief attacks to ease the German pressure on two great factories, Red October and Red Barricade, which were described as cut off but not yet taken.

Nazi troops, perhaps 30,000 strong, led by 100 tanks and supported by 500 planes, were reported spearheading the attack.

Soviet dispatches conceded that the Red Army defenders were now fighting with their backs perilously close to the Volga after retreating to new positions under cover of darkness before dawn today.

At noon, the Russian command said the Germans had seized several streets and indicated that Soviet troops had little room left for maneuvers in one section on the west bank of the Volga.

"The coming winter makes the Germans hurry," said Red Star. "The vile enemy aims to capture the city at any cost."

Hundreds of German corpses littered the streets and more than 36 Nazi tanks were smashed as the Russians beat off seven attacks in the city yesterday, the Soviet command said, but despite their losses the invaders pressed forward in a climactic attempt to fulfill Hitler's boast that Stalingrad was doomed.

The Berlin radio asserted that the siege armies had "broken the cornerstone of the Russian defense system in the northern sector" and occupied the west bank of the Volga system in the northern sector" and occupied the west bank of the Volga along a two-mile front.

"Soviet resistance now is concentrating mainly at the 'red barricade' gun factory and at the 'red October' iron works" south of the captured Dzerzhinsky Tractor Factory, the German transocean news agency reported.

"This small triangle of defense is located northwest of the German offensive wedge in the debris of the Spartakovka Rynox settlement."

A Nazi broadcast admitted that the Russians still held the downtown sector of the city, however, while the Soviet command declared the new outburst had cost the invaders more than 1,500 dead.

At the same time, the Russians were officially reported to have gained fresh ground in local attacks against the German flanks north and south of Stalingrad, and maintained their defenses in the mountain passes deep in the Caucasus, where the Nazis are driving toward the Grozny oil fields.

Offensive Is Launched

Red Star said the Germans launched their newest offensive Wednesday, attempting to strike by surprise after the German radio, in an evident ruse, intimated last week that Nazi assault troops would be withdrawn and that the "finishing touches" would be left to bombers and siege guns.

Other major developments:

Europe in revolt—A wave of violent disorders, marked by bomb throwing and bloodshed, was reported sweeping unoccupied France today as French workers rebelled against increased Nazi pressure for labor to bolster the Hitler war machine.

Reports reaching London said German firing-squads had executed 500 Serbs charged with fomenting a new insurrection against the Nazi conquerors of Yugoslavia.

These reports said German occupation forces had been in-

Republicans Begin Votes-for-Dewey Drive at Meeting

Rally at Cook's Hall Is First of Campaign; Republican Sweep Is Predicted

Speakers, who predicted a Republican sweep in Kingston and Ulster county at the polls on November 3, opened the city's political campaign Thursday evening at an enthusiastic meeting of the Republican City Club in Cook's Hall on Railroad avenue. The assemblage was addressed by District Attorney N. LeVan Haver, County Clerk Robert A. Snyder, Assistant District Attorney Fred Stang and Louis Bruhn, president of the club.

All of the speakers stressed the importance of getting all voters, both men and women, to register today and Saturday, the last two days of registration.

A film showing scenes from the life of Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate for governor, and a film released by the War Department showing the effect of the careless word and the damage and deaths that might ensue held the close attention of the audience.

The Dewey film recorded the activities of Mr. Dewey as district attorney and his work in breaking up the crime rackets in New York city.

District Attorney Haver called attention to the fact that there were approximately 4,000 of the boys of Kingston and Ulster county now in the armed service and of that number but slightly more than 300 had applied for the soldier ballots.

These figures meant, said the district attorney, that 3,500 of the boys in the service would not be able to vote this year. Basing his figures on the average per cent of the vote usually cast in Ulster county the district attorney said

Trucks to Tour 2 Wards Saturday

Second, Thirteenth Ward Scrap Collections Are to Be Carried Out

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock seven trucks will tour the Second and Thirteenth wards of the city in the scrap collection drive. Indications point to a busy day for the men and boys who will devote their time in this vital project.

Chairman Rignall most respectfully requests householders not to include papers or magazines in their contributions at this time.

The response for heavy material from residents throughout the city has been so great, that the chairman asks these patriotic citizens to be patient. The material is desperately needed and the offerings greatly appreciated, but it is impossible to collect all the heavy material at once. The local junk dealer, who had intended to cooperate with his equipment suitable for hauling heavy material, is so busy right now that he cannot assist. This heavy material, however, will be collected as fast as possible.

Members of the Lions Club and boys from the Myron Michael School will assist in the scrap collection tomorrow.

Senate Committee Recommends Draft For 18-Year Group

House Group Displays Displeasure Over School Deferment, Length of Training

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Senate Military Committee recommended the drafting of 18 and 19-year olds today shortly after the House arranged for final action tomorrow on similar legislation.

Rumblings of displeasure arose on the House side of the Capitol over a school deferment amendment in the bill before it and the lack of assurance of a full 12 months' training for the youthful selectees.

The objections were aired at a rules committee hearing on House procedure on the bill, which administration leaders said they expected would be passed swiftly, as one answer of a democracy to totalitarian threats.

The bill approved unanimously by the Senate committe was sponsored by Senator Gurney (R-SD) who announced that the maesure would go to the Senate floor Monday. A $6,000,000,000 naval appropriation bill has the right of way, however, and Gurnery said that a vote on the Draft Bill was unlikely before Tuesday.

Gurney's bill lowers the minimum draft age from 20 to 18 and provides that high school students may be deferred until the end of the last half of the academic year.

The legislation on which the House is to vote tomorrow, for which two hours of debate were allotted, also has provisions designed to prevent married men from being inducted ahead of single men.

Education Deferments

As approved by the House committee, the legislation assured high school and college students of deferment long enough to complete their current academic year, provided it does not run beyond June 30, 1943, and revised the setup under which local draft boards have been meeting monthly quotas intended to build the Army to a strength of 7,500,000 by the end of next year.

The student deferment provision, written into the bill at the

Patrick Powers Gets 20 Years to Life Term

Lewdovowicz Case Moves for Trial

Four Witnesses Are Sworn Into Present People's Side of Charges

Four witnesses were sworn this morning in the trial of The People vs. Benny Lewdovowicz, an action which charges the defendant with entering the house of his father-in-law, John J. Schick on July 2, last and committing assault, and when the noon recess was taken the testimony for the prosecution was in.

Benny Lewdovowicz stands charged with four counts. Assault, first degree; attempted assault, first degree; burglarly, first degree and assault, second degree, all growing out of the alleged entering of the Schick home at 27 Prospect street on July 2, last.

District Attorney Haver presented but four witnesses on behalf of The People. Officer McGrane who arrested the defendant at Eddyville on August 7 testified to the arrest there while the defendant was telephoning. Mr. and Mrs. Schick whom it is alleged were assaulted were sworn and Mrs. Lewdovowicz testified for the prosecution, telling of family difficulty and of leaving her husband at three different times because of disputes.

It is charged that the defendant entered the Schick home on Progress street about 1 o'clock in the morning through a cellar window and when discovered by Mr. Schick assaulted both Mr. Schick and Mrs. Schick. After threatening the two with an axe he left the permises and was later arrested at Eddyville.

On July 2 Mrs. Lewdovowicz

New Hurley Man Is Sentenced by Conway in County Court; Other Cases

Patrick H. Powers, 66, of New Hurley was sentenced in county court this morning by Judge J. Edward Conway to an indeterminate term in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora, the minimum of which shall be 20 years and the maximum life.

Powers was sentenced under his plea of guilty to the murder of his brother-in-law, Joseph Neff, on the Neff farm near Gardiner on August 28, last. Powers was also charged with the shooting of his sister, Bridget Neff at the same time during an argument over ownership of the property.

After shooting Mr. and Mrs. Neff the defendant remained at the house until the following Monday when it became known that the shooting had taken place. Mr. Powers' son was notified but the aged man refused to surrender himself to the officers who arrived at the farm. Powers was finally driven from the house late in the day by tear gas after a prolonged gun battle. During the gun battle Powers armed with the shot gun with which he had killed the couple the previous week, stood off state troopers and deputy sheriffs and at times himself dodged shots fired by the officers.

Powers stated that there had been an argument over ownership of the farm which he had previously owned but lost in foreclosure proceedings. He said during the argument he had pointed the gun at Mrs. Neff and as he was pushing her away with the gun it was accidentally fired. Then when Mr. Neff started to run away and failed to halt he had fired a shot which he had intended to go over

B. P. W. Suspends Engineer Norton, Because His Resignation Was Unsigned

City Engineer James G. Norton was suspended from duty Thursday when he omitted to sign his letter of resignation filed with the Board of Public Works and read at the monthly board meeting that afternoon. The suspension was made effective as of October 10.

The action taken by the board yesterday was on the recommendation of Corporation Counsel Joseph H. Forman, whose advice was sought when it was found that Mr. Norton's letter of resignation bore no signature.

Mayor William F. Edelmuth, who presided at the board meeting, read the letter which had been filed in which Mr. Norton stated "I have decided to take a position with a firm doing war work and feel that in so doing I will more effectively serve my country." Mr. Norton called attention to the fact that he had served the city for the past nine years and thanked the board for the cooperation it had shown him while he held office. The communication was dated October 15.

The mayor said that Mr. Norton's clerk had filed the letter with him, and called the board's attention to the fact that Mr. Norton had omitted signing his name to the communication. The mayor said he was doubtful if the board could accept the resignation without it bearing Mr. Norton's signature.

The other members of the board were also doubtful, and the mayor interrupted the meeting long enough to call the corporation counsel on the telephone and explain the situation.

The mayor at the close of the telephone conversation informed the other board members that the corporation counsel had recommended that under the circumstances Mr. Norton be suspended from duty.

Commissioner William F. Lee-

Navy Will Take Over Huge, New Training Station for 30,000 Recruits

By JAMES C. MUNN

Sampson, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP) — The Navy formally will take over tomorrow administration of a new sprawling, breath-taking huge $50,000,000 training station where 30,000 raw recruits will be drilled by officers fresh from Uncle Sam's fighting fleets.

The latter is "very satisfactory" to Captain H. A. Badt, U. S. N., crisply efficient commandant of the war-born community that sprang into existence far from salt water in less than six months.

"Fighting officers," he observed, "make fighting men."

Construction of the station, so vast that immediate comprehension of its size is difficult, began May 28, but not until July did operations shift into high gear.

Since that time an army of 15,500 laborers, involving a weekly $1,200,000 payroll, has worked day and night in answer to the Navy's demand for speed—and more speed.

Results are well-nigh incredible.

On ground used only for agricultural purposes since the coming of the first white men, great drill hals, barracks, and more than 350 subsidiary buildings look down on beautiful Seneca Lake—deepest and longest of New York's Finger Lakes.

The six drill halls—each 608 feet long and 120 feet wide—emphasize Sampson's purpose in training men in the deadly art of war. Resembling the inverted hulls of ocean-going liners, each hall contains 62 laminated wooden arches, each with an over-all length of 151 feet.

More than 41,000,000 board feet of lumber are contained in the construction; 53 miles of paved roads wind throughout the 2,500 acre reservation; a 24-mile water line, drawing 5,000,000 gallons daily from the lake, curls under-

(By The Associated Press).

Adolf Hitler's siege armies, suddenly renewing the fury of their 53-day-old assault on Stalingrad, reported today they had broken through to the Volga in a violent night attack, occupied half the city and captured the big Dzerzhinsky tractor factory in the northwest sector.

Once again, a grave crisis appeared to be developing in the struggle for the ruined Volga metropolis as the Russians acknowledged that German tanks and infantry had knifed dangerously into Soviet defense lines.

Nevertheless, German military quarters admitted that the Red Army was "continuing to fight as if nothing had happened."

These quarters also reported that the Russians were launching relief attacks to ease the German pressure on two great factories, Red October and Red Barricade, which were described as cut off but not yet taken.

Nazi troops, perhaps 30,000 strong, led by 100 tanks and supported by 500 planes, were reported spearheading the attack.

Soviet dispatches conceded that the Red Army defenders were now fighting with their backs perilously close to the Volga after retreating to new positions under cover of darkness before dawn today.

At noon, the Russian command said the Germans had seized several streets and indicated that Soviet troops had little room left for maneuvers in one section on the west bank of the Volga.

"The coming winter makes the Germans hurry," said Red Star. "The vile enemy aims to capture the city at any cost."

Hundreds of German corpses littered the streets and more than 36 Nazi tanks were smashed as the Russians beat off seven attacks in the city yesterday, the Soviet command said, but despite their losses the invaders pressed forward in a climactic attempt to fulfill Hitler's boast that Stalingrad was doomed.

The Berlin radio asserted that the siege armies had "broken the cornerstone of the Russian defense system in the northern sector" and occupied the west bank of the Volga system in the northern sector" and occupied the west bank of the Volga along a two-mile front.

"Soviet resistance now is concentrating mainly at the 'red barricade' gun factory and at the 'red October' iron works" south of the captured Dzerzhinsky Tractor Factory, the German transocean news agency reported.

"This small triangle of defense is located northwest of the German offensive wedge in the debris of the Spartakovka Rynox settlement."

A Nazi broadcast admitted that the Russians still held the downtown sector of the city, however, while the Soviet command declared the new outburst had cost the invaders more than 1,500 dead.

At the same time, the Russians were officially reported to have gained fresh ground in local attacks against the German flanks north and south of Stalingrad, and maintained their defenses in the mountain passes deep in the Caucasus, where the Nazis are driving toward the Grozny oil fields.

Offensive Is Launched

Red Star said the Germans launched their newest offensive Wednesday, attempting to strike by surprise after the German radio, in an evident ruse, intimated last week that Nazi assault troops would be withdrawn and that the "finishing touches" would be left to bombers and siege guns.

Other major developments:

Europe in revolt—A wave of violent disorders, marked by bomb throwing and bloodshed, was reported sweeping unoccupied France today as French workers rebelled against increased Nazi pressure for labor to bolster the Hitler war machine.

Reports reaching London said German firing squads had executed 500 Serbs charged with fomenting a new insurrection against the Nazi conquerors of Yugoslavia.

These reports said German occupation forces had been in-

Rally at Cook's Hall Is First of Campaign; Republican Sweep Is Predicted

Speakers, who predicted a Republican sweep in Kingston and Ulster county at the polls on November 3, opened the city's political campaign Thursday evening at an enthusiastic meeting of the Republican City Club in Cook's Hall on Railroad avenue. The assemblage was addressed by District Attorney N. LeVan Haver, County Clerk Robert A. Snyder, Assistant District Attorney Fred Stang and Louis Bruhn, president of the club.

All of the speakers stressed the importance of getting all voters, both men and women, to register today and Saturday, the last two days of registration.

A film showing scenes from the life of Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate for governor, and a film released by the War Department showing the effect of the careless word and the damage and deaths that might ensue held the close attention of the audience.

The Dewey film recorded the activities of Mr. Dewey as district attorney and his work in breaking up the crime rackets in New York city.

District Attorney Haver called attention to the fact that there were approximately 4,000 of the boys of Kingston and Ulster county now in the armed service and of that number but slightly more than 300 had applied for the soldier ballots.

These figures meant, said the district attorney, that 3,500 of the boys in the service would not be able to vote this year. Basing his figures on the average per cent of the vote usually cast in Ulster county the district attorney said

Second, Thirteenth Ward Scrap Collections Are to Be Carried Out

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock seven trucks will tour the Second and Thirteenth wards of the city in the scrap collection drive. Indications point to a busy day for the men and boys who will devote their time in this vital project.

Chairman Rignall most respectfully requests householders not to include papers or magazines in their contributions at this time.

The response for heavy material from residents throughout the city has been so great, that the chairman asks these patriotic citizens to be patient. The material is desperately needed and the offerings greatly appreciated, but it is impossible to collect all the heavy material at once. The local junk dealer, who had intended to cooperate with his equipment suitable for hauling heavy material, is so busy right now that he cannot assist. This heavy material, however, will be collected as fast as possible.

Members of the Lions Club and boys from the Myron Michael School will assist in the scrap collection tomorrow.

Senate Committee Recommends Draft For 18-Year Group

House Group Displays Displeasure Over School Deferment, Length of Training

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Senate Military Committee recommended the drafting of 18 and 19-year olds today shortly after the House arranged for final action tomorrow on similar legislation.

Rumblings of displeasure arose on the House side of the Capitol over a school deferment amendment in the bill before it and the lack of assurance of a full 12 months' training for the youthful selectees.

The objections were aired at a rules committee hearing on House procedure on the bill, which administration leaders said they expected would be passed swiftly, as one answer of a democracy to totalitarian threats.

The bill approved unanimously by the Senate committe was sponsored by Senator Gurney (R-SD) who announced that the measure would go to the Senate floor Monday. A $6,000,000,000 naval appropriation bill has the right of way, however, and Gurnery said that a vote on the Draft Bill was unlikely before Tuesday.

Gurney's bill lowers the minimum draft age from 20 to 18 and provides that high school students may be deferred until the end of the last half of the academic year.

The legislation on which the House is to vote tomorrow, for which two hours of debate were allotted, also has provisions designed to prevent married men from being inducted ahead of single men.

Education Deferments

As approved by the House committee, the legislation assured high school and college students of deferment long enough to complete their current academic year, provided it does not run beyond June 30, 1943, and revised the set-up under which local draft boards have been meeting monthly quotas intended to build the Army to a strength of 7,500,000 by the end of next year.

The student deferment provision, written into the bill at the

Patrick Powers Gets 20 Years to Life Term

Lewdovowicz Case Moves for Trial

Four Witnesses Are Sworn Into Present People's Side of Charges

Four witnesses were sworn this morning in the trial of The People vs. Benny Lewdovowicz, an action which charges the defendant with entering the house of his father-in-law, John J. Schick on July 2, last and committing assault, and when the noon recess was taken the testimony for the prosecution was in.

Benny Lewdovowicz stands charged with four counts. Assault, first degree; attempted assault, first degree; burglarly, first degree and assault, second degree, all growing out of the alleged entering of the Schick home at 27 Prospect street on July 2, last.

District Attorney Haver presented but four witnesses on behalf of The People. Officer McGrane who arrested the defendant at Eddyville on August 7 testified to the arrest there while the defendant was telephoning. Mr. and Mrs. Schick whom it is alleged were assaulted were sworn and Mrs. Lewdovowicz testified for the prosecution, telling of family difficulty and of leaving her husband at three different times because of disputes.

It is charged that the defendant entered the Schick home on Progress street about 1 o'clock in the morning through a cellar window and when discovered by Mr. Schick assaulted both Mr. Schick and Mrs. Schick. After threatening the two with an axe he left the premises and was later arrested at Eddyville.

New Hurley Man Is Sentenced by Conway in County Court; Other Cases

Patrick H. Powers, 66, of New Hurley was sentenced in county court this morning by Judge J. Edward Conway to an indeterminate term in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora, the minimum of which shall be 20 years and the maximum life.

Powers was sentenced under his plea of guilty to the murder of his brother-in-law, Joseph Neff, on the Neff farm near Gardiner on August 28, last. Powers was also charged with the shooting of his sister, Bridget Neff at the same time during an argument over ownership of the property.

After shooting Mr. and Mrs. Neff the defendant remained at the house until the following Monday when it became known that the shooting had taken place. Mr. Powers' son was notified but the aged man refused to surrender himself to the officers who arrived at the farm. Powers was finally driven from the house late in the day by tear gas after a prolonged gun battle. During the gun battle Powers armed with the shot gun with which he had killed the couple the previous week, stood off state troopers and deputy sheriffs and at times himself dodged shots fired by the officers.

Powers stated that there had been an argument over ownership of the farm which he had previously owned but lost in foreclosure proceedings. He said during the argument he had pointed the gun at Mrs. Neff and as he was pushing her away with the gun it was accidentally fired. Then when Mr. Neff started to run away and failed to halt he had fired a shot which he had intended to go over

City Engineer James G. Norton was suspended from duty Thursday when he omitted to sign his letter of resignation filed with the Board of Public Works and read at the monthly board meeting that afternoon. The suspension was made effective as of October 10.

The action taken by the board yesterday was on the recommendation of Corporation Counsel Joseph H. Forman, whose advice was sought when it was found that Mr. Norton's letter of resignation bore no signature.

Mayor William F. Bidelmuth, who presided at the board meeting, read the letter which had been filed in which Mr. Norton stated "I have decided to take a position with a firm doing war work and feel that in so doing I will more effectively serve my country." Mr. Norton called attention to the fact that he had served the city for the past nine years and thanked the board for the cooperation it had shown him while he held office. The communication was dated October 15.

The mayor said that Mr. Norton's clerk had filed the letter with him, and called the board's attention to the fact that Mr. Norton had omitted signing his name to the communication. The mayor said he was doubtful if the board could accept the resignation without it bearing Mr. Norton's signature.

The other members of the board were also doubtful, and the mayor interrupted the meeting long enough to call the corporation counsel on the telephone and explain the situation.

The mayor at the close of the telephone conversation informed the other board members that the corporation counsel had recommended that under the circumstances Mr. Norton be suspended from duty.

Navy Will Take Over Huge, New Training Station for 30,000 Recruits

By JAMES C. MUNN

Sampson, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP) — The Navy formally will take over tomorrow administration of a new sprawling, breath-taking huge $50,000,000 training station where 30,000 raw recruits will be drilled by officers fresh from Uncle Sam's fighting fleets.

The latter is "very satisfactory" to Captain H. A. Badt, U. S. N., crisply efficient commandant of the war-born community that sprang into existence far from salt water in less than six months.

"Fighting officers," he observed, "make fighting men."

Construction of the station, so vast that immediate comprehension of its size is difficult, began May 28, but not until July did operations shift into high gear.

Since that time an army of 15,300 laborers, involving a weekly $1,200,000 payroll, has worked day and night in answer to the Navy's demand for speed—and more speed.

Results are well-nigh incredible.

On ground used only for agricultural purposes since the coming of the first white men, great drill hals, barracks, and more than 350 subsidiary buildings look down on beautiful Seneca Lake—deepest and longest of New York's Finger Lakes.

The six drill halls—each 608 feet long and 120 feet wide—emphasize Sampson's purpose in training men in the deadly art of war. Resembling the inverted hulls of ocean-going liners, each hall contains 62 laminated wooden arches, each with an over-all length of 151 feet.

More than 41,000,000 board feet of lumber are contained in the construction; 53 miles of paved roads wind throughout the 2,500 acre reservation; a 24-mile water line, drawing 5,000,000 gallons daily from the lake, curls under-said she had left her husband after trouble at their Third avenue home and went to her mothers home on Progress street. Mr. Schick, who now lives at 211 O'.Neil street, said he was employed at the time as a night watchman and on the night of July 2 was paid a visit about 10 o'clock by Benny who had made a threat to kill his wife. Benny left the factory where Mr. Schick worked and shortly after Mr. Schick went home to see what the trouble was and then returned to work.

About 1 o'clock he testified he went home from work and went to the cellar to light a hot water heater when he found an axe by the cellar steps. A sickle was also found out of place and his wife said she had not moved either of the instruments.

Then Mr. Schick said he believed Benny was in the house and started to search for him. He found him in the coal bin. They came to grips and there was a tussle. Mrs. Schick came down the steps to the cellar and was also assaulted. On the stand Mrs. Schick said she came down the steps to find her husband and Benny in a tussel. She picked up the axe and started after Benny but he took the axe away from her and threatened to strike Mr. Schick with it. She told him he was in difficulty enough and begged him not to strike her husband who had been thrown to the floor.

No blows were struck with the axe and Benny then left through the kitchen door and disappeared. Next day the axe was found in the adjoining yard and it was also found that a cellar window had been broken open and the screen was found outside the window nearby.

Mrs. Schick said Benny had thrown both herself and her husband half way across the cellar floor and then hastened from the house with the axe.

The wife of the defendant said she had not seen the struggle in the cellar but had recognized her husband's voice and heard the sounds of the battle in the cellar.

Roger H. Loughran appears for the defendant and in his opening of the case said that the whole matter boiled down indicated that it was a "family squabble." He said the defendant had not entered the house as a burglar that night after his wife had gone home and that it would be shown that there was no assault made with either the axe or the sickle.

Court was resumed at 2 o'clock.

Three Die in Fire

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Three persons burned to death and seven were injured today by an early morning fire that damaged two apartment-hotels and nearly a block of stores in the downtown section. The cause of the fire was undetermined. The worst damage was to the Girard Hotel and apartments on East Duval street, near Main, where smoke overcame five guests. Water and smoke caused damage to the Sunshine Inn, adjoining the Girard. The dead were not immediately identified.

Fate of Pacific Hangs on Solomons

Sir Archiblad P. Wavell, British Commander-in-chief in India, had returned from an inspection of the northwest frontier under circumstances indicating a possible Allied drive to retake Burma from the Japanese.

"During the visit, General Wavell crossed the Burma frontier," a communique announced, perhaps significantly.

Previously, all British forces were reported to have withdrawn into India after the disastrous Burma campaign last spring.

Reliable but unofficial sources in New Delhi said Gen. Wavell gave a "suggestion" that an attack on Burma could be expected.

In this connection, observers pointed out that American and Allied bombers in recent weeks have stepped up their assaults on the Japanese base at Akyab, on the Bay of Bengal just below the Indian frontier, and other targets in Burma.

Lieut.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced this morning that U. S. bombers and fighters again pounded the enemy base at Lashio, northern Burma, yesterday, starting fires visible 40 miles.

Other developments in the far Pacific struggle:

Madagascar — British troops pressing their occupation of 1,000-mile-long French Madagascar island off the coast of southeast Afrıct, were officially reported to have captured Ambositra, 142 miles below the fallen capital city of Tananarive.

A British communique said the Vichy French defenders offered stiff opposition four miles north of the town but were overwhelmed.

New Guinea front—Australian troops driving toward the Japanese base at Kokoda were reported exerting strong pressure on the enemy on the summit of the mile-high Owen Stanley mountains, while American havocs and Airacobras bombed and machine-gunned enemy troops columns.

Front line dispatches said the Allied advance was being "delayed more than halted" by the suddenly encountered Japanese resistance after 10 days of steady retreat by the enemy.

Hunting Hours Listed

Although the state conservation law states that the hunting season on such species as phesants, rabbits and squirrels open at 12 o'clock noon standard time, October 19 and closes 5 p. m. standard time, it will be illegal for sportsmen to take the field for these species before 1 p. m. Eastern War Time on October 19, but they will able to shoot until 6 p. m., Eastern War Time. Thereafter, on the basis of Eastern War Time, the shooting hours will extend from 8 a. m., to until 6 p. m.

creased in the turbulent Balkan country.

Dispatches to the Swiss press said widespread outbreaks developed in the unoccupied zone of France, notably in Lyon, Chambery and Annecy, and that "blood flowed."

At Annecy, dispatches said, women paraded with placards declaring "we will not let our husbands go to Germany."

Vichy government officials, minimizing the trouble, insisted there had been no requisition order for French workers to go to Germany and that they had only been asked to "volunteer."

Other reports, broadcast by the British radio, said the disorders arose following a letter received by every factory manager in occupied France which "bluntly ordered every manager to send a certain portion of his workers to Germany."

The broadcast said that on hearing this, the workers went on strike.

Planes Raid Cologne

Western air war—Hundreds of Britain's biggest four-motored bombers returned to the attack last night on the battered Rhineland city of Cologne, target of history's 1,000-plane raid last May 30, striking in one of the biggest attacks against Hitler's war foundries in weeks.

Returning R. A. F. pilots said great fires were left raging in the city and that two-ton "block busters" wer dropped on selected targets.

An R. A. F. communique listed 18 planes as missing—indicating a force of perhaps 350 to 400 aircraft took part in the raid—while the Germans said 22 planes were shot down.

An armada of 1,130 R. A. F. bombers carried out the pulverizing attack on Cologne last May.

Battle of Malta—British defenders of Malta were officially credited with shooting down 14 more Axis planes over the Mediterranean island citadel yesterday, making a five-day total of 95 enemy planes destroyed since the Germans and Italians began their intensive pounding of the stronghold Sunday.

Europe's Conquered Folk Are Alive With Bitterness

(By The Associated Press)

Europe's conquered nations seethed with mounting bitterness against the Nazi yoke today and dispatches told of a wave of violent disorders sweeping unoccupied France, German firing-squads dealing out ruthless reprisal for outcroppings of revolt in Yugoslavia, and continuing unrest in Norway.

A Moscow broadcast reported that a big fire—presumably set by Norwegian patriots—had put the Nazi submarine-building yards at Trondheim, on Norway's Atlantic coast, out of operation for a long time.

The broadcast said that Nazi Commissioner Josef Terboven had flown to the scene of the trouble and then on to Berlin and a higher member of Himmler's Gestapo had arrived in Oslo in connection with spreading omens of revolt.

At the same time, Norwegian quarters in London said the hated Quisling regime in Norway had confined more than 1,100 clergymen of the Norwegian church to their homes, because the priests refused to recognize the Quisling regime.

Quisling was reported ordaining hundreds of unqualified laymen to fill the pulpits of 750 churches.

L. B. Gets Job

Farms Need Glamor

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—What the farm needs, Congress was told today, is some glamor. And unless something is done to keep farmhands from seeking that elusive quality elsewhere, the House agriculture committee reported, there may be "a few million hungry stomachs" to awaken the people to a "better understanding and appreciation of those who till the soil."

in this augmented drive along the line of mountains.

For one thing, on the Caspian side he wants to cut Russian communications with the Persian Gulf. The gulf is, of course, one of the two remaining Red lifelines to the outside world, the other being the hazardous passage through the Arctic to Murmansk along the route where American and British sea forces keep daily logs which are epic.

The Nazi chief's other purpose is to thrust down the Black Sea coast and rob the Russian fleet of its harbors.

If he could fight his way as far south as Batum, he would deprive the Reds of their last anchorage and thereby secure control of the Black Sea. This would be an asset of incalculable importance for further operations against the Middle East and eastern Mediterranean.

However, while fighting can continue through the winter in this southern zone, Hitler will think himself lucky if he is able to secure the line of mountains between the two seas.

Actually the way the Russians have been holding he has before him a task so great that the danger of his breaking through into the southern Caucasus thus far is rather remote.

One can go even further and say the Nazi all-highest is a badly worried, desperate man, the offensives which he now is flinging at Stalingrad and the Caucasus line represent his final all-out efforts before the snows and ice come.

While fighting can continue in the Caucasus even during the winter, which in the lowlands is mild compared with the fierce sub-zero weather farther north, operations inevitably must slow down.

Furthermore the German striking power both in men and material is badly in need of a rest and overhaul. Hitler has overworked his fighting machine in an effort to secure a decisive victory by breaking through into the southern Caucasus and the Middle East.

His chances of success now are as far off as the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, and he can't even see the rainbow.

Inequalities Between Groups Have Been Noted Already Regarding Salary and Wage Controls

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 16—Salary and wage controls by the federal government have been ordered, but, until regulations are issued, the public will be in the dark as to what increases may be made.

Inequalities between groups are already apparent. Thus, a lawyer who works for a company as a general counsel may be getting a fixed salary, while another lawyer with his own firm or partnership can bargain for his fee and secure an increase. The same thing is true of movie stars and other classes of professional workers. The regulations are expected to clarify this problem, or there will be a lot of professional people adopting the status of independent contractor instead of employe.

All sorts of puzzles are being tossed at government officials as they struggle with the writing of the regulations. Thus, what of the salaried individual who had a contract stipulating a fixed sum increase each year for a two or three year period, especially if the arrangement was entered into before the executive order was issued? Also what can an employer do if one what can an employer do if one of his valued employes gets an offer from a competitor at a higher salary? Can he meet that salary, and, to do so he must testify that the employe is getting a promotion or that he has acquired increased value because of the appraisal by a competitor?

These questions are but a few out of the many that are coming up. The Bureau of Internal Revenue has been asked to draft the regulations, and its viewpoint has always been one of getting revenue. Now, however, the executive order virtually requires that anyone with a salary of over $25,000 after taxes shall have that salary reduced. It so happens that the Internal Revenue has a number of cases—it always has—of taxpayers who are delinquent on last year's taxes. Does this mean that the bureau must write regulations that will permit such a taxpayer to earn, let us say, $100,000, so that he will have enough to pay his back taxes? And what kind of a rule is it that permits one man in a company to get a larger salary, so he can pay more taxes, while another is denied the privilege of giving the treasury more of his money and retaining some at the same time?

Even if the regulations should permit a man to get a bigger income than $25,000 in the year 1942 so he will have enough to pay 1941 taxes, what happens to the income he must have in 1944 in order to pay taxes on the enlarged income permitted him in the year 1943?

Anybody who has the answer to this sort of question can probably ingratiate himself with the experts in the Internal Revenue Bureau who are trying to figure it all out.

Another headache is to be derived from trying to find out what is meant by this language in Section 7 of Title II of the executive order which reads:

"No salary shall be authorized under Title III, Section 4, to the extent that it exceeds $25,000 after the payment of taxes allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000."

What is meant by "allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000"? One treasurer of a large corporation who believes that legal language means what it says has figured it out that if a surtax net income from a salary received by a married person with two dependents is $40,000, the total income tax under the House and Senate bills now pending, excluding the Victory Tax, would be $19,336. The amount allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000 is $9,426. This amount deducted from the $40,000 surtax net income would be $30,574, which is in excess of the $25,000 limit. In effect, it could mean, therefore, that a surtax net income from salary could not exceed $25,000 and that from this would be deducted the income tax, $9,426, leaving residual income of only $15,574.

This, however, is certainly not believed to have been the intent of the President under his original request that salaries be limited to $25,000 after payment of taxes and fixed obligations. He probably meant that about $55,000 would have to be earned in order to retain about $25,000. The forthcoming regulations will have to clear up that point, as the language of the executive order is ambiguous.

Labor unions seem likely to be the only ones who will benefit from the arrangement, as they are already starting negotiations to bring all wage scales 15 per cent above the wages of January 1, 1941. No such formula has as yet been sanctioned for the white-collar class. It is possible that a line of demarcation will be made at $3,500, or thereabouts, so as to apply certain rules to "wages" below that mark and other rules to "salaries" above that amount, but the regulations are still far from being put into final form.

AIR FORCES—Learn to fly and fight and keep 'em flying in one of more than 26 Air Force jobs. Bombardiers, navigators, pilots, gunners, radio men are needed in the air—mechanics on the ground. Train for a career in this fighting service.

ARMORED FORCE—Smash the enemy with a fast-moving, powerful team of tanks, combat cars, trucks, "jeeps," motorcycles. There's thrilling action for gunners, drivers, radio men and mechanics in the Army's tough armored divisions.

CAVALRY—Whether you like to ride a good horse or handle a fast armored car, motorcycle or truck, there's a place for you in the Cavalry's mobile striking force. The rougher the going the better the Cavalry likes it.

CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE—Here's your chance to be a combat soldier, firing chemical munitions. The 4.2-inch mortar, used for smoke screens to cover the advance of troops, will be one of your principal weapons.

COAST ARTILLERY—Want to aim an antiaircraft gun at a Jap—or help load and fire a giant coast defense gun? Service with the Coast Artillery will give you experience in gunnery, mechanics, electrical and radio work.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—In the forefront of the fighting much of the time, you'll see a lot of action with the Engineers. Building bridges, roads, air-fields and tank-traps—planning camouflage—destroying enemy installations—are all in the day's work.

CORPS OF MILITARY POLICE—Reliable, clear-thinking men who know how to shoulder responsibility, the Military Police speed troop movements at the front and behind the lines, guard prisoners, enforce order. They're trained fighting men.

FIELD ARTILLERY—Here's the outfit that softens up the foe with a barrage of shells, smashes his supply lines, rains fire on his reserves. The guns roll fast behind speedy trucks and tractors. Plenty of action for daring drivers, gunners and mechanics.

INFANTRY—Moving 40 miles an hour in big trucks, skiing in snowy mountains, dropping by parachute or flying into enemy territory in transport planes, today's infantry is streamlined. Eleven different weapons give deadly fire-power. Upon enlistment you may request assignment for tank destroyer training.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT—Wherever the fighting is toughest the Medical units are on the job, saving lives. Ambulance drivers, laboratory technicians and able young men for many other duties are needed now in this vital service.

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT—The supply and maintenance of all weapons are in charge of the Ordnance Department. Repairing tanks and guns under fire is a job for tough men. There's lots of room for daring drivers and good mechanics.

QUARTERMASTER CORPS—Battle smoke and bursting shells can't stop the movement of food and supplies. Men in the front lines have to be fed. The Quartermaster Corps takes care of the troops wherever they are. The service develops resourcefulness.

SIGNAL CORPS—In the nerve center of the Army, Signal Corps men "get the message through." Radio, telephone and other means of swift communication are their tools. They work with "electronic sentries" and other secret weapons, and get front-line action and experience.

Baptist Church Supper Is Held

Regular Quarterly Session Is Also Conducted

The First Baptist Church of Kingston held its annual Church Fellowship Supper in the church hall on Thursday evening, October 15, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. The serving of the supper was in charge of the First Baptist Men's Club.

At the regular quarterly business meeting of the church which followed the serving of the supper, two important decisions were made. It was voted that the church broadcast its Sunday morning worship over local station WKNY throughout the months of October, November and December.

It was also decided that the church building would be open on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays only until January 1. After January 1 it is to be open Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday only. This step was necessitated due to the oil situation.

The church also decided to send the Rev. H. Victor Kane as its official delegate to the Baptist State Convention at Buffalo October 19-21.

Following the business session slide pictures were shown under the title "Stumbling Blocks or Stepping Stones." These pictures brought out the fact that church finances are not the burden of just a few of the moneyed class of the church, but of its whole constituency since it is a democratic organization. Lloyd R. LeFevre, vice-president of the Board of Trustees, and William S. Jackson, church treasurer, assisted the Rev. H. Victor Kane in the presentation of the meaning of the pictures. The Rev. H. Victor Kane also paid tribute to H. R. Brigham, who has served the church as the president of the Board of Trustees for a number of years.

At the conclusion of the showing of the pictures the meeting was concluded by a period of recreation and fellowship.

said she had left her husband after trouble at their Third avenue home and went to her mothers home on Progress street. Mr. Schick, who now lives at 211 O'Neil street, said he was employed at the time as a night watchman and on the night of July 2 was paid a visit about 10 o'clock by Benny who had made a threat to kill his wife. Benny left the factory where Mr. Schick worked and shortly after Mr. Schick went home to see what the trouble was and then returned to work.

About 1 o'clock he testified he went home from work and went to the cellar to light a hot water heater when he found an axe by the cellar steps. A sickle was also found out of place and his wife said she had not moved either of the instruments.

Then Mr. Schick said he believed Benny was in the house and started to search for him. He found him in the coal bin. They came to grips and there was a tussle. Mrs. Schick came down the steps to the cellar and was also assaulted. On the stand Mrs. Schick said she came down the steps to find her husband and Benny in a tussel. She picked up the axe and started after Benny but he took the axe away from her and threatened to strike Mr. Schick with it. She told him he was in difficulty enough and begged him not to strike her husband who had been thrown to the floor.

No blows were struck with the axe and Benny then left through the kitchen door and disappeared. Next day the axe was found in the adjoining yard and it was also found that a cellar window had been broken open and the screen was found outside the window nearby.

Mrs. Schick said Benny had thrown both herself and her husband half way across the cellar floor and then hastened from the house with the axe.

The wife of the defendant said she had not seen the struggle in the cellar but had recognized her husband's voice and heard the sounds of the battle in the cellar.

Roger H. Loughran appears for the defendant and in his opening of the case said that the whole matter boiled down indicated that it was a "family squabble." He said the defendant had not entered the house as a burglar that night after his wife had gone home and that it would be shown that there was no assault made with either the axe or the sickle.

Court was resumed at 2 o'clock.

Three Die in Fire

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Three persons burned to death and seven were injured today by an early morning fire that damaged two apartment-hotels and nearly a block of stores in the downtown section. The cause of the fire was undetermined. The worst damage was to the Girard Hotel and apartments on East Duval street, near Main, where smoke overcame five guests. Water and smoke caused damage to the Sunshine Inn, adjoining the Girard. The dead were not immediately identified.

Sir Archibald P. Wavell, British Commander-in-chief in India, had returned from an inspection of the northwest frontier under circumstances indicating a possible Allied drive to retake Burma from the Japanese.

"During the visit, General Wavell crossed the Burma frontier," a communique announced, perhaps significantly.

Previously, all British forces were reported to have withdrawn into India after the disastrous Burma campaign last spring.

Reliable but unofficial sources in New Delhi said Gen. Wavell gave a "suggestion" that an attack on Burma could be expected.

In this connection, observers pointed out that American and Allied bombers in recent weeks have stepped up their assaults on the Japanese base at Akyab, on the Bay of Bengal just below the Indian frontier, and other targets in Burma.

Lieut.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced this morning that U. S. bombers and fighters again pounded the enemy base at Lashio, northern Burma, yesterday, starting fires visible 40 miles.

Other developments in the far Pacific struggle:

Madagascar — British troops pressing their occupation of 1,000-mile-long French Madagascar island off the coast of southeast Africt, were officially reported to have captured Ambositra, 142 miles below the fallen capital city of Tananarive.

A British communique said the Vichy French defenders offered stiff opposition four miles north of the town but were overwhelmed.

New Guinea front—Australian troops driving toward the Japanese base at Kokoda were reported exerting strong pressure on the enemy on the summit of the mile-high Owen Stanley mountains, while American havocs and Alracobras bombed and machine-gunned enemy troops columns.

Front line dispatches said the Allied advance was being "delayed more than halted" by the suddenly encountered Japanese resistance after 10 days of steady retreat by the enemy.

Hunting Hours Listed

Although the state conservation law states that the hunting season on such species as phesants, rabbits and squirrels open at 12 o'clock noon standard time, October 19 and closes 5 p. m. standard time, it will be illegal for sportsmen to take the field for these species before 1 p. m. Eastern War Time on October 19, but they will able to shoot until 6 p. m., Eastern War Time. Thereafter, on the basis of Eastern War Time, the shooting hours will extend from 8 a. m., to until 6 p. m.

Germans Claim Hold on Stalingrad

creased in the turbulent Balkan country.

Dispatches to the Swiss press said widespread outbreaks developed in the unoccupied zone of France, notably in Lyon, Chambery and Annecy, and that "blood flowed."

At Annecy, dispatches said, women paraded with placards declaring "we will not let our husbands go to Germany."

Vichy government officials, minimizing the trouble, insisted there had been no requisition order for French workers to go to Germany and that they had only been asked to "volunteer."

Other reports, broadcast by the British radio, said the disorders arose following a letter received by every factory manager in occupied France which "bluntly ordered every manager to send a certain portion of his workers to Germany."

The broadcast said that on hearing this, the workers went on strike.

Planes Raid Cologne

Western air war—Hundreds of Britain's biggest four-motored bombers returned to the attack last night on the battered Rhineland city of Cologne, target of history's 1,000-plane raid last May 30, striking in one of the biggest attacks aghinst Hitler's war foundries in weeks.

Returning R. A. F. pilots said great fires were left raging in the city and that two-ton "block busters" wer dropped on selected targets.

An R. A. F. communique listed 18 planes as missing—indicating a force of perhaps 350 to 400 aircraft took part in the raid—while the Germans said 22 planes were shot down.

An armada of 1,130 R. A. F. bombers carried out the pulverizing attack on Cologne last May.

Battle of Malta—British defenders of Malta were officially credited with shooting down 14 more Axis planes over the Mediterranean island citadel yesterday, making a five-day total of 95 enemy planes destroyed since the Germans and Italians began their intensive pounding of the stronghold Sunday.

Europe's Conquered Folk Are Alive With Bitterness

(By The Associated Press)

Europe's conquered nations seethed with mounting bitterness against the Nazi yoke today and dispatches told of a wave of violent disorders sweeping unoccupied France, German firing-squads dealing out ruthless reprisal for outcroppings of revolt in Yugoslavia, and continuing unrest in Norway.

A Moscow broadcast reported that a big fire—presumably set by Norwegian patriots—had put the Nazi submarine-building yards at Trondheim, on Norway's Atlantic coast, out of operation for a long time.

The broadcast said that Nazi Commissioner Josef Terboven had flown to the scene of the trouble and then on to Berlin and a higher member of Himmler's Gestapo had arrived in Oslo in connection with spreading omens of revolt.

At the same time, Norwegian quarters in London said the hated Quisling regime in Norway had confined more than 1,100 clergymen of the Norwegian church to their homes, because the priests refused to recognize the Quisling regime.

Quisling was reported ordaining hundreds of unqualified laymen to fill the pulpits of 750 churches.

L. B. Gets Job

Farms Need Glamor

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—What the farm needs, Congress was told today, is some glamor. And unless something is done to keep farmhands from seeking that elusive quality elsewhere, the House agriculture committee reported, there may be "a few million hungry stomachs" to awaken the people to a "better understanding and appreciation of those who till the soil."

Guard Is Retired

From Sing Sing prison comes the announcement that Benjamin Fieseler, sergeant of the guard at the prison, where he started in as a keeper and has worked for 30 years, has retired at the age of 57. Fieseler, who is a native of Ellenville, is said to have attended more than 200 executions during his career.

in this augmented drive along the line of mountains.

For one thing, on the Caspian side he wants to cut Russian communications with the Persian Gulf. The gulf is, of course, one of the two remaining Red lifelines to the outside world, the other being the hazardous passage through the Arctic to Murmansk along the route where American and British sea forces keep daily logs which are epic.

The Nazi chief's other purpose is to thrust down the Black Sea coast and rob the Russian fleet of its harbors.

If he could fight his way as far south as Batum, he would deprive the Reds of their last anchorage and thereby secure control of the Black Sea. This would be an asset of incalculable importance for further operations against the Middle East and eastern Mediterranean.

However, while fighting can continue through the winter in this southern zone, Hitler will think himself lucky if he is able to secure the line of mountains between the two seas.

Actually the way the Russians have been holding he has before him a task so great that the danger of his breaking through into the southern Caucasus thus far is rather remote.

One can go even further and say the Nazi all-highest is a badly worried, desperate man, the offensives which he now is flinging at Stalingrad and the Caucasus line represent his final all-out efforts before the snows and ice come.

While fighting can continue in the Caucasus even during the winter, which in the lowlands is mild compared with the fierce sub-zero weather farther north, operations inevitably must slow down.

Furthermore the German striking power both in men and material is badly in need of a rest and overhaul. Hitler has overworked his fighting machine in an effort to secure a decisive victory by breaking through into the southern Caucasus and the Middle East.

His chances of success now are as far off as the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, and he can't even see the rainbow.

Aviation Cadet Killed

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Aviation Cadet Alexander Craig MacClellan, III, U. S. N. R., of Newport, R. I., was killed yesterday when the trainer plane he was piloting collided with another trainer near St. Augustine Inlet. MacClellan's ship crashed into the water, Navy officers said. Aviation Cadet Frank August Riancha, U. S. N. R., of Long Beach, N. Y., pilot of the other plane, was able by skillful handling to fly his craft back to Lee field despite a crushed wing.

Inequalities Between Groups Have Been Noted Already Regarding Salary and Wage Controls

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 16—Salary and wage controls by the federal government have been ordered, but, until regulations are issued, the public will be in the dark as to what increases may be made.

Inequalities between groups are already apparent. Thus, a lawyer who works for a company as a general counsel may be getting a fixed salary, while another lawyer with his own firm or partnership can bargain for his fee and secure an increase. The same thing is true of movie stars and other classes of professional workers. The regulations are expected to clarify this problem, or there will be a lot of professional people adopting the status of independent contractor instead of employe.

All sorts of puzzles are being tossed at government officials as they struggle with the writing of the regulations. Thus, what of the salaried individual who had a contract stipulating a fixed sum increase each year for a two or three year period, especially if the arrangement was entered into before the executive order was issued? Also what can an employer do if one what can an employer do if one of his valued employes gets an offer from a competitor at a higher salary? Can he meet that salary, and, to do so he must testify that the employe is getting a promotion or that he has acquired increased value because of the appraisal by a competitor?

These questions are but a few out of the many that are coming up. The Bureau of Internal Revenue has been asked to draft the regulations, and its viewpoint has always been one of getting revenue. Now, however, the executive order virtually requires that anyone with a salary of over $25,000 after taxes shall have that salary reduced. If so happens that the Internal Revenue has a number of cases—it always has—of taxpayers who are delinquent on last year's taxes. Does this mean that the bureau must write regulations that will permit such a taxpayer to earn, let us say, $100,000, so that he will have enough to pay his back taxes? And what kind of a rule is it that permits one man in a company to get a larger salary, so he can pay more taxes, while another is denied the privilege of giving the treasury more of his money and retaining some at the same time?

Even if the regulations should permit a man to get a bigger income than $25,000 in the year 1942 so he will have enough to pay 1941 taxes, what happens to the income he must have in 1944 in order to pay taxes on the enlarged income permitted him in the year 1943?

Anybody who has the answer to this sort of question can probably ingratiate himself with the experts in the Internal Revenue Bureau who are trying to figure it all out.

Another headache is to be derived from trying to find out what is meant by this language in Section 7 of Title II of the executive order which reads:

"No salary shall be authorized under Title III, Section 4, to the extent that it exceeds $25,000 after the payment of taxes allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000."

What is meant by "allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000"? One treasurer of a large corporation who believes that legal language means what it says has figured it out that if a surtax net income from a salary received by a married person with two dependents is $40,000, the total income tax under the House and Senate bills now pending, excluding the Victory Tax, would be $19,336. The amount allocable to the sum in excess of $25,000 is $9,426. This amount deducted from the $40,000 surtax net income would be $30,574, which is in excess of the $25,000 limit. In effect, it could mean, therefore, that a surtax net income from salary could not exceed $25,000 and that from this would be deducted the income tax, $9,426, leaving residual income of only $15,574.

This, however, is certainly not believed to have been the intent of the President under his original request that salaries be limited to $25,000 after payment of taxes and fixed obligations. He probably meant that about $55,000 would have to be earned in order to retain about $25,000. The forthcoming regulations will have to clear up that point, as the language of the executive order is ambiguous.

Labor unions seem likely to be the only ones who will benefit from the arrangement, as they are already starting negotiations to bring all wage scales 15 per cent above the wages of January 1, 1941. No such formula has as yet been sanctioned for the white-collar class. If is possible that a line of demarcation will be made at $3,500, or thereabouts, so as to apply certain rules to "wages" below that mark and other rules to "salaries" above that amount, but the regulations are still far from being put into final form.

CHRISTMAS FOR MEN ABROAD

Christmas shopping days for gifts to be mailed to the members of the armed forces in overseas service are fast coming to a close. November 1 is the deadline for mailing gifts to be delivered before the holiday to members of our fighting forces stationed outside the continental limits of the United States.

If we are to remember the sons, brothers and fathers, who on this coming Christmas Day will be somewhere in Ireland, England, Africa, Australia and other foreign lands, we must act now.

Because of limitations on transportation space available, packages may not exceed eleven pounds in weight or eighteen inches in length, or forty-two inches in length and girth combined. Postmasters throughout the country, however, have appealed to the public to keep gifts within six pounds and in packages no larger than a shoe box. The Army Postal Service covering instructions for sending Christmas mail to armed forces abroad also provide that not more than one Christmas parcel or package shall be accepted for mailing in any one week when sent by or on behalf of the same person or concern to or for the same addressee.

Despite the limitation in size and the announcement that the men are well provided for in the lines of clothing and food, there still remains a long list of articles which can be purchased in Kingston stores and which will bring joy to these men during the holiday season.

Wrappings on the packages should be strong yet not so intricate that parcels cannot be examined officially. Every address should be as complete as the rules permit.

Mail parcels and cards now and be legible and accurate.

INVISIBLE GUESTS

A New York Times' writer suggests that in doing without things we make a practice of sharing with invisible guests. He puts forth the idea that an individual or family adopt an imaginary buddy for the duration —Chang-wu of Chekiang, for example or Feodor Ivanovich or Karel Vopic, or let us add Georgios Matatapoulos or Jean-Baptiste.

"Every time a man in New York sat down to his meatless dinner he would munch away at his beans and be watching across the table Chang-wu biting into a good, thick ham sandwich. He might take him along when shopping and pick up a pair of shoes for him, or to the box office at the theatre, where a person might get along with a seat 50 cents cheaper and treat Feodor Ivanovich to a couple of packs of cigarettes."

It's a noble thought. Why not work it out for the average family, with a box on the dining-room table into which pennies from the small fry and silver from the oldsters might be dropped when the beans come on, or the good old macaroni and cheese, or the fish caught in the neighboring stream or neighboring market on a day when pork chops or a beefsteak might righteously have been expected in the days of yore? The box could be emptied into the country's War Chest whenever it got so full that the coins would no longer jingle-jangle-jingle. Then the family could be sure Chang, Feodor, Georgios, Jean or Gunnar and their families would get one good meal.

That's a plan that would never be far wrong!

FORGOTTEN PATRIOT

A president and Revolutionary hero who has not received his due is John Adams, whose 207th birthday will be celebrated on October 19. If remembered at all, he is apt to be recalled as one member of the family that has contributed more eminent men than any other to the American record. In particular, John Adams has been rather overshadowed by his distinguished son, John Quincy Adams, and even by his cousin, Samuel Adams. But he deserves to be remembered in his own right.

One of the foremost leaders in the movement for independence, he for many years represented the infant American government in difficult diplomatic posts, and was the first minister to England after the close of the Revolution. Twice vice-president under Washington and president for one term, to be succeeded by Jefferson, he was a vigorous and successful, if somewhat quick-tempered, executive.

His last years were featured by his famous correspondence with Jefferson—all rivalries forgotten. Both Adams and Jefferson died in 1826 on the same day, and that day July 4th—one of the most remarkable coincidences in American history.

Not so great a man as Jefferson, he was a valuable public servant who should not be allowed to pass out of recollection.

TOO MUCH TERRITORY

The greatest German statesman in the past hundred years is without doubt Bismarck. Even Hitler recognizes his supremacy. Yet Hitler has not paid enough attention to Bismarck's wisdom. In 1885, fourteen years after the Franco-Prussian war which gave Germany Alsace-Lorraine, Bismarck remarked, out of his years of trying to govern the new possessions: "We have taken too much French territory. Could we aspire to conquests at the expense of France, Belgium or Holland? They would be recalcitrant nations. Looking all round our frontiers, every gain would be a loss, every increase a cause for weakness."

Within the next months and years Bismarck's words will ring more and more true.

TREATMENT OF RHEUMATISM

When we think of rheumatism, many of us think of a swollen joint — ankle, knee, elbow, shoulder. What we fail to remember is that rheumatism may not be in a joint but may be affecting structures near or distant from the joint.

When rheumatism is not in the joint proper, it is called nonarticular rheumatism. Thus in the Glasgow Medical Journal, Dr. J. H. Hutchison states that he encountered 78 cases of nonarticular rheumatism in a military hospital. "Such cases, whatever their nature, are curable and they do not require prolonged hospital treatment."

Fibrositis, the form of rheumatism in which the fibres of the muscles attached to the bones are inflamed or irritated, was present in 54 cases. Fibrositis is recognized by three signs—tenderness at the spot, spasm, and some little nodules which feel like little bony lumps. Two of the three signs are always present. All 54 cases were cured within 20 days.

There were 6 cases of sciatica, and the average length of stay in hospital was 39 days.

The fibrositis cases were caused by sudden strain, wear and tear, infection and sepsis (infection or poison), chilling, and emotional disturbances—fear, worry, excitement.

What about the treatment in fibrositis and sciatica? "Rest is always necessary in the treatment of fibrositis and sciatica." Heat is of great help in the relief of pain. Massage and heat form the most generally successful treatment for fibrositis.

In sciatica it was found (as has been found by most physicians) that massage must be used cautiously, if at all, and then only in the later stages when the acute pain is gradually becoming less. In all cases of sciatica a quieting drug or pain relieving drug was used. These quieting drugs take away the tension of nerve and muscle and with the 'pull' gone, the pain is relieved.

"The relief of pain following the injection of a local anaesthetic was dramatic and rapid, and the power of movement returned. In chronic cases the pain and stiffness were lessened. The local anaesthetic will not relieve pain due to emotional disturbances."

After the injection of the local anaesthetic, physical therapy — heat massage, electricity — should follow.

"AT CENTURY'S TURN"

By H. L. VAN DEUSEN

One of the favorite medicines used in Kingston in the days of before the first World War, and which I understand is still obtainable in local drug stores, was Drake's Remedy. Older readers will also recall Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy which was very popular during the Gay Nineties.

Dr. Kennedy in addition to his medicine business also was active in city affairs and served as mayor of Kingston from 1892 to 1895. The medicine plant for years was located on Ferry street.

Drake's Remedy as I recall it was the production of Chaplain Abram T. Drake, a veteran of the Civil War, who died on April 20, 1917, in his home on Henry street.

George C. Wolven, for years active in the industrial life of the city, died on April 21, 1927, in his home on Albany avenue. Mr. Wolven for years was engaged in the flour and feed business with Robert Wilson, under the firm name of Wilson & Wolven. At the time of Mr. Wilson's death, the business was carried on by Mr. Wolven and David Ebel under the name of Wolven & Ebel, until Mr. Wolven retired from business.

For years the business was established on O'Neil street, near Broadway.

It was in April, 1927, that the Red Men and Odd Fellows of Kingston sponsored a Mardi Gras which was held in the state armory. I recall that Miss Helen Roosa was crowned Miss Kingston at this event.

Miss Roosa had been selected from a bevy of pretty girls by the judges, Mayor E. J. Dempsey, Sheriff Arthur Rice, Judge Harry E. Schirick, Henry G. Macholdt, a former alderman of the Ninth Ward, Vincent Van Bramer and Miss Helen Cashin.

Also in April, 1927, the board of trustees of the Rondout Savings Bank awarded the contract for the erection of the present fine banking house on Broadway, at Mill street, to the W. E. Joyce Construction Co., Inc.

The bank had bought the three-story brick building that stood on the site of the present banking house, and had torn down the building to make room for the new bank. This old building for years housed the S. E. Eighmey dry goods store, for years one of the leading mercantile houses of Kingston.

After the death of Mr. Eighmey the store had carried on for a while and then closed its doors.

I have in my possession an old playbill of the first indoor circus ever held in the local Y. M. C. A. The circus was stager in the gym on April 19, 1907, under the direction of the late W. W. Brundage, then serving the "Y" as physical director.

Mr. Brundage was one of the most popular physical directors to ever serve the local association, and he will be readily recalled by the older men of today who, as boys, were active members of the "Y."

Soldier Can Sell Bonds

Fort Riley, Kas. (AP)—A private from Fort Riley watched while several girls, with indifferent success, tried to sell war stamps to people lined up at a theatre box office. "Look", said the private. "Why not just tell them if they can't afford to buy stamps they can't afford the movies? In 10 more minutes the girls sold $20 worth of stamps. And the prettiest of the girls wound up as the soldier's date for the evening.

Truth About Rubber

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 16—I am just returning from a trip. Reports gathered from high sources confirm what I have always believed, namely, as the Baruch Committee intends, that there will be "tires for all." My readers know that last winter while in Florida I made numerous tire experiments and wrote optimistically on the situation. I was severely criticized for emphasizing the necessity for automobile transportation and in forecasting that there would be plenty of recapping for everyone. Recent events confirm exactly what I have said from the very first.

Tire Companies Waking Up

Encouraged by the Baruch-Conant-Compton report, by progress in the development of synthetic rubber, and by the possibilities in reclaimed rubmber, tire companies now await only the "go ahead" signal from Rubber Director Jeffers. They will do much to supply all legitimate civilian re-treading requirements. This re-treading material will be made from re-claimed rubber although 3 per cent may be synthetic. Synthetic rubber will mostly be used for military purposes as it will hold up longer.

The tire industry in general has anticipated the coming new developments. The big three companies have already made re-caps from both synthetic and re-claimed rubber. None of these have yet appeared on the market as their sale has been prohibited. These companies are, however, now all set to go although their productive facilities are jammed in getting out first-class off-sized tires for the military. Hence, in all probability the smaller tire companies, equipped to manufacture the size tires in common civilian use, will profit most from the new setup. Ths is particularly true in cases of companies whose equipment has not been removed to make way for armament machinery.

Balancing Supply and Demand

While inventories of new casings were abnormally low when tire restrictions were put into effect, stocks on hand have held up pretty well. This is due to an increase in re-treading and the fact that most cars and trucks were carrying pretty good rubber when imports of crude were shut off. When the tire ban was imposed last December only about 7,000,000 of the 27,000,000 passenger cars then in use were eligible for new tires. Existing supplies, due to the efficiency and honesty of ration boards who deserve much credit, have been quite sufficient to take care of vehicles which qualify for new tires.

Normal obsolescence of passenger cars during the past eleven months, plus eastern gasoline restrictions, careful driving, and the limitations on new car sales, have all helped to conserve tires in use and to protect our stock piles. With country-wide gasoline rationing and speeds limited to 35 miles an hour, further savings in rubber will be made. True, there is now building up greater demand for new tires from qualified users. However, when Director Jeffers releases, under the Baruch Plan, sufficient re-claimed rubber to retread 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tires a month for eighteen months it will take only three or four months to balance our tire supply with its legitimate demand.

Synthetic Coming

People speak glibly of synthetic rubber but very few know what it is. Actually, it is a substance known in the trade as Buna S. This is made by combining two other materials, namely, butadiene and stryene. Both of these are derived through chemical processes complicated to the layman. Butadiene can be made from either alcohol or petroleum; hence, the interest of the oil companies and the farmers in synthetic rubber. Behind the alcohol lies grain, molasses, or other products. The plant investment to produce synthetic rubber from alcohol or oil is about the same namely, $300 per ton-year capacity. However, as one of the most important items in the process is obtained as a by-product in the manufacture of aviation gasoline, the petroleum method is considered cheaper.

It is taking time to provide new plants and the necessary raw materials with which to produce the finished product. In all probability, no synthetic rubber in quantity will be available for the public until early in 1944. However, for the next fifteen months we shall be able to get along comfortably with re-treading from our re-claimed rubber. But readers can look forward with confidence to the coming of synthetic. In fact, it is more reasonable to expect that our passenger cars and commercial trucks will wear out rather than that a serious shortage of re-treading rubber will curtail our transportation requirements. Also, remember that we many have reconquered Burma by that time, which would release a lot of native rubber.

What About Rubber Securities?

The above means that I am bullish on the securities of the tire manufacturing companies although they have already risen considerably above their lows. This should encourage local tire dealers, garages, and real estate owners who are now suffering from tire restrictions. As for the supplies of gasoline, I do not worry at all! The need to conserve tires and to release transportation facilities for more important purposes, rather than actual scarcity of gasoline, are the real reasons for its rationing except in districts depending upon ocean delivery.

W. L. Curtin Dies

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—William Lawton Curtin, 65, former New York Tribune ship news reporter whose refusal in 1914 to disclose a confidential source led to an important United States Supreme Court decision on freedom of the press, died yesterday in New York Hospital. When Curtin wrote two stories for the Tribune in 1914 on jewelry smuggling and evasion of duty payments, Treasury Department officials sought to learn his source. Curtin and George Burdick, his city editor, were both questioned by the federal jury, but refused to divulge their sources. They were each fined $500 for contempt of court but a year later the Supreme Court reversed the district court.

Goodfellow Is Now With Army of U. S.

Secretary of City Y.M.C.A. Will Go to Upton

GEORGE GOODFELLOW

Secretary George Goodfellow of the local Y. M. C. A., who was inducted into the army after passing a physical test at an army induction center in Albany on October 13, will report at an army training camp on October 27. He has filed his resignation as secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. with the board of directors to take effect Saturday, October 24.

Secretary Goodfellow assumed his duties at the local association February 1, 1941, and during the time he has been in charge has been one of the most efficient men ever to serve the local "Y." He came to Kingston from White Plains where he had been serving as boys' work secretary in the "Y" there.

Under the administration of Secretary Goodfellow the local association has been made more of a community center than ever before in its history, and its doors have been thrown open to all groups working for the benefit of the city.

Among the many activities sponsored by the "Y" during the Goodfellow regime was the Old Timers Night and banquet, one of the outstanding social events of the season in Kingston. He also inaugurated the Day Camp during the summer vacation months for the children of the city.

One of the biggest problems confronting Secretary Goodfellow when he took over at the "Y" was some $8,000 in long-standing obligations, and during the brief time he has been serving as secretary this amount was cut down to $3,000.

Many improvements have also been made at the "Y" and one of the finest programs of activities for boys and men inaugurated and placed in successful operation.

Other activities that attracted considerable attention was the Pet Show held earlier this year, and also the Hobby Show that was staged in the new gymnasium with hundreds of exhibits of all types of hobbies.

Aids Campaigns

In addition to his many duties as secretary of the association, Mr. Goodfellow has found time to devote to civic affairs. In 1941 he served as a member of the executive committee of the U.S.O., and up until October 1, he served as chairman of the Kingston Salvage Committee, resigning the post when he was notified that he had been called by the local draft board for army service.

Secretary Goodfellow has been serving as a member of the Board of Governors of the Kingston Rotary Club; he was a member of the A. H. Wicks Engine Co., a member of the social hygiene committee of the Ulster County TB Committee.

He was also a member of the Mendelssohn Club and of the Masonic fraternity.

Secretary Goodfellow has been engaged in "Y" work for 20 years. While in charge of the boys' division of the White Plains association he arranged a number of boys' tours both of this country and the old world. In the course of that program he conducted groups of boys on seven trips abroad and on several trips of the United States.

His last boys' tour was in 1940 when he took a group of boys on a tour of the United States visiting Grand Canyon, Hollywood, San Francisco Exposition, Seattle and the Pacific Northwest, Yellowstone National Park, Chicago and Washington, D. C.

In the resignation of Secretary Goodfellow the local "Y" loses a competent man. His duties as secretary of the "Y" and his many civic and home defense activities have made him one of the best known men in Kingston during nearly two years he has been here.

Townsendites Hear Talk By the Rev. O. R. Miller

A large crowd gathered at Mechanics' Hall, Henry street, for the regular semi-monthly session of the Kingston Townsend Club, No. 1, this week, to hear Dr. Carr Miller deliver his lecture, "Golden Secrets of Health." The Rev. O. R. Miller, twin brother of the lecturer, was also present and spoke, as did George Mutari of Saugerties and Mr. Matrocci, candidate for District Attorney in the coming election. This being the Miller's brothers 77th birthday, a huge cake, appropriately decorated for the occasion, was presented them, and later cut and served with ice cream.

Miss Mildred Niles, president of the local club and Mrs. Nellie Conlin, chairman of the extension committee, were elected by the club membership as delegates to the New York State Conference at Syracuse, Saturday, October 17, and Sunday, October 18.

Miss Niles and Mrs. Conlin reported at the recent meeting, having personally contacted 96 members for renewal of dues and turned in the secretary, Mrs. William Pomeroy $34 as a result of this effort.

Three Girls Fall Into Police Net

Staten Island Glamour Burglars Are Picked Up at Ferry Slip

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—The spree is ended but the memory lingers on for three girls who wanted to have fun and apparently did—at the expense of others.

"It was swell while it lasted," Deputy Chief Inspector Michael McDermott said Nancy Provenzanno, 17, asserted yesterday as she admitted burglarizing Staten Island homes with two younger companions to get money for "a good time around Times Square."

The blonde, zoot-suit clad girl waived examination and was held in $2,500 bail for the grand jury, while her two companions, 14 and 16, were held for appearance in children's court.

McDermott quoted Nancy as relating that she and her friends had taken $450 in cash and $2,500 worth of valuables from the Staten Island homes.

Detectives said they broke the case when two blonde girls disembarked from a Staten Island ferry from Manhattan and tried to "palm" a box of candy worth 50 cents.

Police said the oldest of the three explained their methods of operation. . . .

The plan was to burglarize homes after determining that the occupants were away. If no one answered their knock at a door, one would climb in through a rear window and admit the others.

If someone answered, they would pretend to be looking for "Mr. Barr."

The girls would come to Manhattan to pawn or sell their loot, and then, detectives said, would go on a spree.

"We had a real good time," police quoted the 16-year-old. "We ate in the best restaurants and danced in the best hotels."

Said Nancy Provenzanno:

"We knew we'd be caught, but we're satisfied."

that two-thirds of the boys in service would have voted the Republican ticket. This meant a loss in Republican votes this year of approximately 1,500.

Records indicate, said the district attorney, that each year there are a large number of voters in Ulster county who never take the trouble to register and vote, and he urged those present to seek out these non-voters and urge upon them the importance of exercising their duty as American citizens to register and vote.

If this was done much of the votes that would not otherwise be cast, owing to the large number in the armed service, would be cast on election day.

President Bruhn in opening the first of a series of fall rallies urged the importance of registering and voting this year. For the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the Republican prospects for electing a governor were exceedingly bright, he said, and Ulster county should do its full share in electing Dewey to office, as well as electing the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

The theme of getting every voter out to register and vote was also stressed by Mr. Snyder and Mr. Stang in their talks.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS
A Real Worker

Although having a large law practice, Mr. Mauhs set the fork in practically every one of the 150 loads of hay that went into his large cow barn this year, and in the horse barn, where there is no hay fork, he pitched off something like 20 loads by hand.

He is the candidate every farmer in the 27th District should support. He knows farming, and what's more, he works at it.

Baptist Church Supper Is Held

Regular Quarterly Session Is Also Conducted

The First Baptist Church of Kingston held its annual Church Fellowship Supper in the church hall on Thursday evening, October 15, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. The serving of the supper was in charge of the First Baptist Men's Club.

At the regular quarterly business meeting of the church which followed the serving of the supper, two important decisions were made. It was voted that the church broadcast its Sunday morning worship over local station WKNY throughout the months of October, November and December.

It was also decided that the church building would be open on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays only until January 1. After January 1 it is to be open Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday only. This step was necessitated due to the oil situation.

The church also decided to send the Rev. H. Victor Kane as its official delegate to the Baptist State Convention at Buffalo October 19-21.

Following the business session slide pictures were shown under the title "Stumbling Blocks or Stepping Stones." These pictures brought out the fact that church finances are not the burden of just a few of the moneyed class of the church, but of its whole constituency since it is a democratic organization. Lloyd R. LeFevre, vice-president of the Board of Trustees, and William S. Jackson, church treasurer, assisted the Rev. H. Victor Kane in the presentation of the meaning of the pictures. The Rev. H. Victor Kane also paid tribute to H. R. Brigham, who has served the church as the president of the Board of Trustees for a number of years.

At the conclusion of the showing of the pictures the meeting was concluded by a period of recreation and fellowship.

City Has Seven Auto Accidents During September

During September there were seven motor vehicle accidents reported in Kingston in which seven persons were injured, but none killed, according to the monthly accident report filed by Chief of Police Charles Phinney with the Board of Police Commissioners at the regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon.

The report reads as follows:

September 3—At the intersection of Abruyn and East Union streets, a car operated by William Koth, of this city, was in collision with a car operated by James Wright, also of this city. Mrs. William Koth sustained abrasions and other injury to chest.

What You Buy With WAR STAMPS

Destroyers are the "Greyhounds of the Sea." Unarmored, these sleek, deadly ships depend upon their speed to protect them from enemy fire. Besides their guns, they carry torpedoes and depth charges. Modern destroyers burn oil and 50 cents, the price of two 25-cent War Stamps, will pay for enough fuel to drive a destroyer one mile.

Maybe you can't be aboard a destroyer when it bears down on a U-boat, but you can have the satisfaction of knowing that the money you loan Uncle Sam through the purchase of War Stamps may be providing the fuel that is turning the ship's propellors. OFFICE CAT

"TRADE MARK REG."

By Junius

Advertising will protect your business against forgetfulness.

Judge—What is the defendant's reputation for veracity?

Witness—Excellent, your honor. I've known him to admit that he had been fishing all day and hadn't got a single bite.

A little boy had been extremely naughty, and his father told him to go to bed and he would come up a little later and settle accounts with him. Before getting into bed the child knelt on his knees by the bed and said: "Please, God, if You really do want to help a little boy in trouble, now is Your chance."

Man—You say you've worn this hat for two years?

Friend—Yes, sir, and it looks all right still. Twice I've had it cleaned and once I exchanged it in a restaurant for one that was entirely new.

Action is just as important as knowledge.

It was out in the rural regions. The rancher came home late in the evening and saw a light bobbing around his house:

Rancher (to himself)—Ha! A prowler and I'll catch him red handed.

He approached closer and saw that it was Jason, the hired man.

Rancher (demanding) — What the devil are you doing prowling around with a lantern at this time of night?

Jason—I'm courting Mabel.

Rancher (grumbling)—A devil of a way you go about it. When I went courting my wife I never carried a lantern.

Jason — No, sir! You couldn't have. We can all see that you didn't, sir.

We heard of a man who said: "I'm not worrying over possible war shortages of the necessities of life. I can always find a fork in the road, a dipper in the sky, a bed in a stream, a shelf of rocks, a curtain of mist, and a carpet of leaves."

Mother—What are you going to be when you grow up, Sue?

Daughter—I am going to be an old maid.

Mother (surprised) — An old maid, dear! Why?

Daughter—Because I don't think I'd like to kiss a man a hundred times and tell him he's handsome every time I go shopping. I think I'd rather earn money and buy things for myself.

Being in business now is also sort of a war.

Young Man (to a lad of about 10)—Last night at the party your sister promised to marry me. Will you forgive me for taking her away from you?

Lad—Sure. We had the party to help Sis land you.

High in the Sky

I thrill to see an airplane in the sky, a man-made bird on peaceful mission bent,
Shortening space to nothing in its flight, messenger of good will, friendly sent.
I shudder when I hear an airplane roar, a man-made dragon, bearing death and hate;
Shortening space to nothing in its flight, weapons of death and destruction as its freight.
I cannot know why such things have to be, I only know they guard the things I love;
And so I'm glad (although I'm sorry, too) for airplanes high in the skies above.

—Ursula Franklin.

The artist was of the expression school. He had just given the finishing touches to a purple and blue canvas, when his wife entered the studio:

Artist—My dear, I have just completed my landscape, and I should like you to suggest a title for it.

Wife (taking a good, long look at her husband's effort, and then murmuring)—Why not call it "Home"?

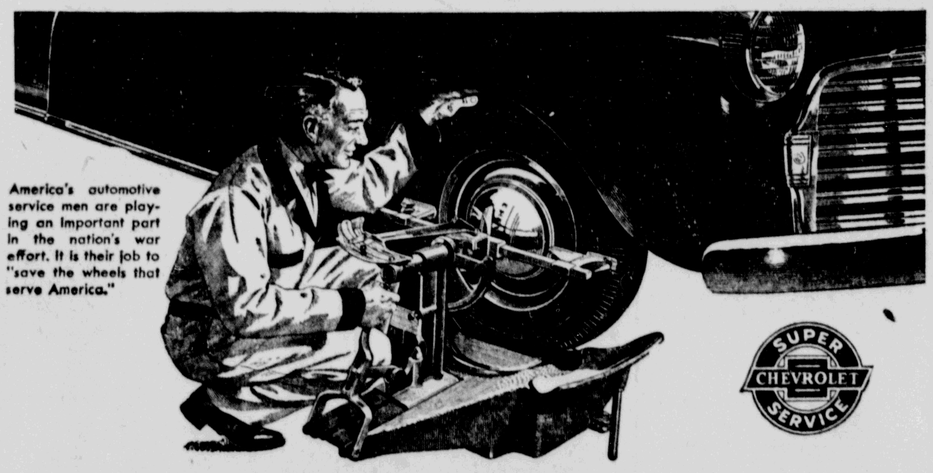

Artist—But why "Home"?

Wife—Because there's no place like it.

- In some sections, 78% to 100% of the workers drive by automobile to vital war plants.
- 2,314 U. S. cities, with a population of 12,524,000, depend on private cars for transportation; 54,000 communities depend entirely on motor vehicles.
- Six out of every ten farms use one car or more; 67% of farm car mileage is necessity driving.
- More than 65.2% of all war plants reporting in Michigan (a typical war production state) depend on trucks to haul their incoming and outgoing freight.
- Trucks haul nearly 100% of the milk supply of most large cities—and 58% of all livestock marketed in the U. S.
- Trucks are the sole transportation system serving our 54,000 communities not reached by railroads.

hive said that in view of the corporation counsel's recommendation he moved that Mr. Norton be suspended as of October 10, without pay. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mayor Edelmuth said that he had been informed that Mr. Norton was now employed by Ward Brothers of Haverstraw. The mayor said that the action taken by the board in adopting the Leehive resolution was taken to protect the city from paying Mr. Norton's salary while he was employed elsewhere.

Mr. Norton was not present at the meeting yesterday and it was stated that he was out of town. Mayor Edelmuth said that several days ago Mr. Norton had informed him he was thinking of accepting a position with a firm engaged in war work, and at that time had asked for several days vacation which he, the mayor, had granted.

A communication was read from Louis Navara of 56 Navara street, who called attention to the fact that he had been doing maintenance work on that street since it was opened. He had started doing it when there were but two houses on the street, but now that there were five houses he felt the job was beyond him, and desired to deed the street to the city.

After some discussion the communication was filed and the board secretary was instructed to write Mr. Navara that under war conditions that now existed the board was unable to obtain materials needed for street improvement, and for that reason would not be able to accept the deed of the street at this time.

Cy's Diner Sidewalk

The board's attention was called to a bill of the city amounting to $250 for laying a sidewalk in front of Cy's Diner at Broadway and East Chester street. Mayor Edelmuth said that Cy's Diner was willing to pay $125, and had informed him that prior to the November election last year that the mayor had said that would be the amount that would have to be paid.

Subsequently Cy's Diner had received the bill for $250.

After some discussion the board adopted a resolution recommending that the $125 be accepted.

To Pay $700

The board after discussing the matter of the claim of $700 filed against the city by William J. Whiston in payment of land taken by the city to widen Linderman avenue, adopted a resolution recommending that the claim be paid.

A communication was read from the Stuyvesant Hotel management calling attention to the fact that two street lights in front of the hotel made the use of two bedrooms impossible as guests complained that the lights kept them awake. The request was made that the city either remove the lights or have them shaded.

The secretary of the board was instructed to send a communication to the hotel management enclosing a copy of the ordinance adopted in 1936 which prohibits the removal of street lights or the shading of the lights.

Granted Leaves

Leaves of absence for the duration of the war were granted Arthur Van Nostrand and Harold Middagh, who have been inducted into army service.

Mr. Van Nostrand was employed as a mason by the board, while Mr. Middagh was garage superintendent.

The board approved the appointment of Walter Tammany to serve as acting garage superintendent.

Chester Huston, who had charge of the maintenance of the street and signal lights, has resigned his position with the board, and yesterday the board named Walter Wilson to serve as temporary labor foreman in Mr. Huston's place.

Bills were read and audited and the board then adjourned.

Louis Thiel is having his state road barn painted a cherry red with white trim. R. Schuler of the Spillway section is the artist with the brush.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Triggin of Goshen spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sickler.

Erwin Amrhein and family, formerly summer occupants of the Emily Hansen house in the village center, were in this section during the holiday.

Frank Barringer of the north boulevard is reported to have sold his large farm along the Back Brook. The place, which at one time was the home of Mrs. John Hasbrouck of Kingston, has in recent years been operated by Grant Every and family.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Algot Olson at their Shokan camp included the following Brooklyn residents: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Miss Doris Olson, Miss Anna Kanzy, Miss Shirley Olson and Holger Fogerstrom. Mrs. Olson is remaining here this week.

Henry Gebbelein is home again following a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Theodore Carlson, in New Jersey.

Mrs. A. Olson reports that no news has been heard of Eddie Dutelle and Larry Brant in several months, and it is now feared that they are either dead or prisoners of the Japs. The Brooklyn youths, who spent several vacations in Shokan, enlisted in the army air service two years ago.

Miss Anita Wallerstein spent the holiday with her parents in Brooklyn.

The polling place for Olive district No. 1 will be in the village hall this fall instead of in the corner store as has been the case for the past few years.

The old kitchen stove used in the Olive and Hurley Baptist pavilion for many years has been added to the local Red Cross scrap pile.

Election official placed 473 names of potential voters on the registration roll Saturday.

George VonderOsten, well known war veteran, is spending a few days in New York.

Included among the operating force at Beechford Farms at Cold Brook are Archie Bogart and Herbert Wells, both former Shokan residents.

Mrs. William Tuceling, accompanied by William Tuceling, Jr., and Miss Barbara Tuceling, enjoyed a holiday trip to New York.

Calves for vealing and raising are scarce this fall. Pullet prices run up to $2 and there are almost none to be had locally.

Sunday, October 4, was the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Justus North, one of Shokan's popular couples. Mr. and Mrs. North were married by the Rev. Thomas Braithwaite, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's father, the late Mose Palen of Ashokan.

Current crops in the flourishing garden of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Markle include a cooking variety of soy beans which have done well. Mrs. Markle's flowers, as usual, were attractive this fall and the blooms are holding well despite the successive frosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Palen and friend, Charles Doyle, came up from Brooklyn to spend the week-end with Mr. Palen's sister, Mrs. J. North, and family. "Bob," who is production manager for the L. O. Koven firm in Jersey City, has made arrangements to sell his bungalow on the Tonche Mountaiin road.

Flying squirrels have made their appearance here according to one of the village residents who saw several of the strangers near his home.

CHRISTMAS FOR MEN ABROAD

Christmas shopping days for gifts to be mailed to the members of the armed forces in overseas service are fast coming to a close. November 1 is the deadline for mailing gifts to be delivered before the holiday to members of our fighting forces stationed outside the continental limits of the United States.

If we are to remember the sons, brothers and fathers, who on this coming Christmas Day will be somewhere in Ireland, England, Africa, Australia and other foreign lands, we must act now.

Because of limitations on transportation space available, packages may not exceed eleven pounds in weight or eighteen inches in length, or forty-two inches in length and girth combined. Postmasters throughout the country, however, have appealed to the public to keep gifts within six pounds and in packages no larger than a shoe box. The Army Postal Service covering instructions for sending Christmas mail to armed forces abroad also provide that not more than one Christmas parcel or package shall be accepted for mailing in any one week when sent by or on behalf of the same person or concern to or for the same addressee.

Despite the limitation in size and the announcement that the men are well provided for in the lines of clothing and food, there still remains a long list of articles which can be purchased in Kingston stores and which will bring joy to these men during the holiday season.

Wrappings on the packages should be strong yet not so intricate that parcels cannot be examined officially. Every address should be as complete as the rules permit.

Mail parcels and cards now and be legible and accurate.

INVISIBLE GUESTS

A New York Times' writer suggests that in doing without things we make a practice of sharing with invisible guests. He puts forth the idea that an individual or family adopt an imaginary buddy for the duration —Chang-wu of Chekiang, for example or Feodor Ivanovich or Karel Vopic, or let us add Georgios Matatapoulos or Jean-Baptiste.

"Every time a man in New York sat down to his meatless dinner he would munch away at his beans and be watching across the table Chang-wu biting into a good, thick ham sandwich. He might take him along when shopping and pick up a pair of shoes for him, or to the box office at the theatre, where a person might get along with a seat 50 cents cheaper and treat Feodor Ivanovich to a couple of packs of cigarettes."

It's a noble thought. Why not work it out for the average family, with a box on the dining-room table into which pennies from the small fry and silver from the oldsters might be dropped when the beans come on, or the good old macaroni and cheese, or the fish caught in the neighboring stream or neighboring market on a day when pork chops or a beefsteak might righteously have been expected in the days of yore? The box could be emptied into the country's War Chest whenever it got so full that the coins would no longer jingle-jangle-jingle. Then the family could be sure Chang, Feodor, Georgios, Jean or Gunnar and their families would get one good meal.

That's a plan that would never be far wrong!

FORGOTTEN PATRIOT

A president and Revolutionary hero who has not received his due is John Adams, whose 207th birthday will be celebrated on October 19. If remembered at all, he is apt to be recalled as one member of the family that has contributed more eminent men than any other to the American record. In particular, John Adams has been rather overshadowed by his distinguished son, John Quincy Adams, and even by his cousin, Samuel Adams. But he deserves to be remembered in his own right.

One of the foremost leaders in the movement for independence, he for many years represented the infant American government in difficult diplomatic posts, and was the first minister to England after the close of the Revolution. Twice vice-president under Washington and president for one term, to be succeeded by Jefferson, he was a vigorous and successful, if somewhat quick-tempered, executive.

His last years were featured by his famous correspondence with Jefferson—all rivalries forgotten. Both Adams and Jefferson died in 1826 on the same day, and that day July 4th—one of the most remarkable coincidences in American history.

Not so great a man as Jefferson, he was a valuable public servant who should not be allowed to pass out of recollection.

TOO MUCH TERRITORY

The greatest German statesman in the past hundred years is without doubt Bismarck. Even Hitler recognizes his supremacy. Yet Hitler has not paid enough attention to Bismarck's wisdom. In 1885, fourteen years after the Franco-Prussian war which gave Germany Alsace-Lorraine, Bismarck remarked, out of his years of trying to govern the new possessions: "We have taken too much French territory. Could we aspire to conquests at the expense of France, Belgium or Holland? They would be recalcitrant nations. Looking all round our frontiers, every gain would be a loss, every increase a cause for weakness."

Within the next months and years Bismarck's words will ring more and more true.

TREATMENT OF RHEUMATISM

When we think of rheumatism, many of us think of a swollen joint — ankle, knee, elbow, shoulder. What we fail to remember is that rheumatism may not be in a joint but may be affecting structures near or distant from the joint.

When rheumatism is not in the joint proper, it is called nonarticular rheumatism. Thus in the Glasgow Medical Journal, Dr. J. H. Hutchison states that he encountered 78 cases of nonarticular rheumatism in a military hospital. "Such cases, whatever their nature, are curable and they do not require prolonged hospital treatment."

Fibrositis, the form of rheumatism in which the fibres of the muscles attached to the bones are inflamed or irritated, was present in 54 cases. Fibrositis is recognized by three signs—tenderness at the spot, spasm, and some little nodules which feel like little bony lumps. Two of the three signs are always present. All 54 cases were cured within 20 days.

There were 6 cases of sciatica, and the average length of stay in hospital was 39 days.

The fibrositis cases were caused by sudden strain, wear and tear, infection and sepsis (infection or poison), chilling, and emotional disturbances—fear, worry, excitement.

What about the treatment in fibrositis and sciatica? "Rest is always necessary in the treatment of fibrositis and sciatica." Heat is of great help in the relief of pain. Massage and heat form the most generally successful treatment for fibrositis.

In sciatica it was found (as has been found by most physicians) that massage must be used cautiously, if at all, and then only in the later stages when the acute pain is gradually becoming less. In all cases of sciatica a quieting drug or pain relieving drug was used. These quieting drugs take away the tension of nerve and muscle and with the 'pull' gone, the pain is relieved.

"The relief of pain following the injection of a local anaesthetic was dramatic and rapid, and the power of movement returned. In chronic cases the pain and stiffness were lessened. The local anaesthetic will not relieve pain due to emotional disturbances."

After the injection of the local anaesthetic, physical therapy — heat massage, electricity — should follow.

"AT CENTURY'S TURN"

By H. L. VAN DEUSEN

One of the favorite medicines used in Kingston in the days of before the first World War, and which I understand is still obtainable in local drug stores, was Drake's Remedy. Older readers will also recall Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy which was very popular during the Gay Nineties.

Dr. Kennedy in addition to his medicine business also was active in city affairs and served as mayor of Kingston from 1892 to 1895. The medicine plant for years was located on Ferry street.

Drake's Remedy as I recall it was the production of Chaplain Abram T. Drake, a veteran of the Civil War, who died on April 20, 1917, in his home on Henry street.

George C. Wolven, for years active in the industrial life of the city, died on April 21, 1927, in his home on Albany avenue. Mr. Wolven for years was engaged in the flour and feed business with Robert Wilson, under the firm name of Wilson & Wolven. At the time of Mr. Wilson's death, the business was carried on by Mr. Wolven and David Ebel under the name of Wolven & Ebel, until Mr. Wolven retired from business.

For years the business was established on O'Neil street, near Broadway.

It was in April, 1927, that the Red Men and Odd Fellows of Kingston sponsored a Mardi Gras which was held in the state armory. I recall that Miss Helen Roosa was crowned Miss Kingston at this event.

Miss Roosa had been selected from a bevy of pretty girls by the judges, Mayor E. J. Dempsey, Sheriff Arthur Rice, Judge Harry E. Schirick, Henry G. Macholdt, a former alderman of the Ninth Ward, Vincent Van Bramer and Miss Helen Cashin.

Also in April, 1927, the board of trustees of the Rondout Savings Bank awarded the contract for the erection of the present fine banking house on Broadway, at Mill street, to the W. E. Joyce Construction Co., Inc.

The bank had bought the three-story brick building that stood on the site of the present banking house, and had torn down the building to make room for the new bank. This old building for years housed the S. E. Eighmey dry goods store, for years one of the leading mercantile houses of Kingston.

After the death of Mr. Eighmey the store had carried on for a while and then closed its doors.

I have in my possession an old playbill of the first indoor circus ever held in the local Y. M. C. A. The circus was staged in the gym on April 19, 1907, under the direction of the late W. W. Brundage, then serving the "Y" as physical director.

Mr. Brundage was one of the most popular physical directors to ever serve the local association, and he will be readily recalled by the older men of today who, as boys, were active members of the "Y."

Soldier Can Sell Bonds

Fort Riley, Kas. (AP)—A private from Fort Riley watched while several girls, with indifferent success, tried to sell war stamps to people lined up at a theatre box office. "Look", said the private. "Why not just tell them if they can't afford to buy stamps they can't afford the movies? In 10 more minutes the girls sold $200 worth of stamps. And the prettiest of the girls wound up as the soldier's date for the evening.

Truth About Rubber

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 16—I am just returning from a trip. Reports gathered from high sources confirm what I have always believed, namely, as the Baruch Committee intends, that there will be "tires for all." My readers know that last winter while in Florida I made numerous tire experiments and wrote optimistically on the situation. I was severely criticized for emphasizing the necessity for automobile transportation and in forecasting that there would be plenty of recapping for everyone. Recent events confirm exactly what I have said from the very first.

Tire Companies Waking Up

Encouraged by the Baruch-Conant-Compton report, by progress in the development of synthetic rubber, and by the possibilities in reclaimed rubber, tire companies now await only the "go ahead" signal from Rubber Director Jeffers. They will do much to supply all legitimate civilian re-treading requirements. This re-treading material will be made from re-claimed rubber although 3 per cent may be synthetic. Synthetic rubber will mostly be used for military purposes as it will hold up longer.

The tire industry in general has anticipated the coming new developments. The big three companies have already made re-caps from both synthetic and re-claimed rubber. None of these have yet appeared on the market as their sale has been prohibited. These companies are, however, now all set to go although their productive facilities are jammed in getting out first-class oil-sized tires for the military. Hence, in all probability the smaller tire companies, equipped to manufacture the size tires in common civilian use, will profit most from the new setup. This is particularly true in cases of companies whose equipment has not been removed to make way for armament machinery.

Balancing Supply and Demand

While inventories of new casings were abnormally low when tire restrictions were put into effect, stocks on hand have held up pretty well. This is due to an increase in re-treading and the fact that most cars and trucks were carrying pretty good rubber when imports of crude were shut off. When the tire ban was imposed last December only about 7,000,000 of the 27,000,000 passenger cars then in use were eligible for new tires. Existing supplies, due to the efficiency and honesty of ration boards who deserve much credit, have been quite sufficient to take care of vehicles which qualify for new tires.

Normal obsolescence of passenger cars during the past eleven months, plus eastern gasoline restrictions, careful driving, and the limitations on new car sales, have all helped to conserve tires in use and to protect our stock piles. With country-wide gasoline rationing and speeds limited to 35 miles an hour, further savings in rubber will be made. True, there is now building up greater demand for new tires from qualified users. However, when Director Jeffers releases, under the Baruch Plan, sufficient re-claimed rubber to re-tread 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tires a month for eighteen months it will take only three or four months to balance our tire supply with its legitimate demand.

Synthetic Coming

People speak glibly of synthetic rubber but very few know what it is. Actually, it is a substance known in the trade as Buna S. This is made by combining two other materials, namely, butadiene and styrene. Both of these are derived through chemical processes complicated to the layman. Butadiene can be made from either alcohol or petroleum; hence, the interest of the oil companies and the farmers in synthetic rubber. Behind the alcohol lies grain, molasses, or other products. The plant investment to produce synthetic rubber from alcohol or oil is about the same namely, $300 per ton-year capacity. However, as one of the most important items in the process is obtained as a by-product in the manufacture of aviation gasoline, the petroleum method is considered cheaper.

It is taking time to provide new plants and the necessary raw materials with which to produce the finished product. In all probability, no synthetic rubber in quantity will be available for the public until early in 1944. However, for the next fifteen months we shall be able to get along comfortably with re-treading from our re-claimed rubber. But readers can look forward with confidence to the coming of synthetic. In fact, it is more reasonable to expect that our passenger cars and commercial trucks will wear out rather than that a serious shortage of re-treading rubber will curtail our transportation requirements. Also, remember that we many have reconquered Burma by that time, which would release a lot of native rubber.

What About Rubber Securities?

The above means that I am bullish on the securities of the tire manufacturing companies although they have already risen considerably above their lows. This should encourage local tire dealers, garages, and real estate owners who are now suffering from tire restrictions. As for the supplies of gasoline, I do not worry at all! The need to conserve tires and to release transportation facilities for more important purposes, rather than actual scarcity of gasoline, are the real reasons for its rationing except in districts depending upon ocean delivery.

The Insurance office of Walter Donnaruma, in the Opera House Building, 277 Fair street, has been vacated and he has moved to 143 Franklin street. Mr. Donnaruma recently purchased the former Dr. W. C. Connelly residence at that address.

The doctor's rooms have been converted into business offices which have been refinished in knotty pine. Entrance to the offices is separated from the residence by a private passage on the north side of the house.

The offices are open during the usual business hours. Mr. Donnaruma invites his clients to call and inspect the new quarters.

Rosendale Plans Yuletide Gifts For Service Men

At a regular meeting of the Woman's Club held recently at the home of Mrs. E. M. Huben, the club voted to sponsor a project of sending a Christmas gift to each boy from the entire township who is in the service. At present there are 70 boys in the service from the township of Rosendale, with a large number already overseas.

The club has planned to spend approximately $2 on each gift and with the cost of mailing so high, the cost of financing this project is considerable.

A committee from the Women's Club is personally contacting executives of each organization and also the business men of the town in an effort to obtain their financial support. However, we feel that most individuals in the town will consider it an honor and a privilege to make some contribution to give the men in service a Merry Christmas and to let the boys know that their friends are thinking of them at the Yuletide season.

Contributions may be mailed to or turned in at the office of Mrs. Anna Auchmoedy, Main street, Rosendale, by Monday, October 19. In order to make this project a success, the club needs the rank, names and address of each man that is in the service. If you are a parent, relative or friend, you are asked to send this information to Mrs. Stephen Huben, Rosendale, on or before Monday, October 19.

The American system of getting information to the people would collapse or the cost to the subscriber would be prohibitive if advertising was stopped, says the Department of Commerce.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

FLASHES OF LIFE .. ..o.....
(By The Associated Press)

Inspiration

Pittsburgh—Corp. Earl Oxford, former movie actor who sings "I Left My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen" in the all-Army stage production currently showing here, has a ready explanation for the emotion he's able to put into the song. "I just think of my last girl I sang to professionally before going into the Army," the corporal said. The girl? Lana Turner.

Minces No Words

Philadelphia—Faint heart, Private Victor Williams mused, never won Janet Blair.

So, entering a letter-writing contest with other servicemen at the Stage Door Canteen—the winner to take the curvaceous screen star to a movie premier tonight—he wrote:

"I'd be a damned fool if I didn't want to take you out."

Naturally, he won.

Fraud

Atlanta—Freshmen at the Atlanta Junior College are questioning the campaign methods of Sara Richardson, successful candidate for class president. She promised kisses to all her supporters, they charge, and paid off with candy kisses.

Buried Treasure

Miami, Fla.—Mrs. George Lyons well-stuffed piggy bank, 16 inches long and six inches high, is due for drastic reduction. All for Uncle Sam, who asked every one to put pennies back into circulation and thus free copper for war needs. The piggy bank gave up 5,300 pennies, collected over the past 18 months.

Gold!

New York—Repairman Frank Holser went to the pit of an elevator shaft—and did he get a lift! He found $1,117 in cash.

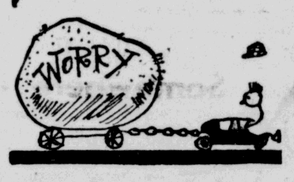

It'll be his if no one claims it in six months.

Going and Coming

Los Angeles—William N. Moxley saw smoke swirling from the mattress in the rear of his truck. He pell-melled for the fire house two blocks away.

As he whirled up to the station, he narrowly avoided a collision with the fire truck hurrying out on a call.

It was on its way to meet him.

SOMETIMES WE THINK THEY'RE TOO DARNED GOOD!

Yes, sir, sometimes when we get to thinking about our classified ads, we think they're too good for our own good.

You see, it's like this. Someone call 2200 and inserts an ad. "Run it 3 days," they say. Then after the ad appears just One night, they call and say, "Take my ad out. I had about 50 calls last night."

So we lose money, for the other insertions. Now, do you see why we sometimes think our classified ads are "too good."

W. L. Curtin Dies

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—William Lawlen Curtin, 65, former New York Tribune ship news reporter whose refusal in 1914 to disclose a confidential source led to an important United States Supreme Court decision on freedom of the press, died yesterday in New York Hospital. When Curtin wrote two stories for the Tribune in 1914 on jewelry smuggling and evasion of duty payments, Treasury Department officials sought to learn his source. Curtin and George Burdick, his city editor, were both questioned by the federal jury, but refused to divulge their sources. They were each fined $500 for contempt of court but a year later the Supreme Court reversed the district court.

Goodfellow Is Now With Army of U. S.

Secretary of City Y.M.C.A. Will Go to Upton

GEORGE GOODFELLOW

Secretary George Goodfellow of the local Y. M. C. A., who was inducted into the army after passing a physical test at an army induction center in Albany on October 13, will report at an army training camp on October 27. He has filed his resignation as secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. with the board of directors to take effect Saturday, October 24.

Secretary Goodfellow assumed his duties at the local association February 1, 1941, and during the time he has been in charge has been one of the most efficient men ever to serve the local "Y." He came to Kingston from White Plains where he had been serving as boys' work secretary in the "Y" there.

Under the administration of Secretary Goodfellow the local association has been made more of a community center than ever before in its history, and its doors have been thrown open to all groups working for the benefit of the city.

Among the many activities sponsored by the "Y" during the Goodfellow regime was the Old Timers Night and banquet, one of the outstanding social events of the season in Kingston. He also inaugurated the Day Camp during the summer vacation months for the children of the city.

One of the biggest problems confronting Secretary Goodfellow when he took over at the "Y" was some $8,000 in long-standing obligations, and during the brief time he has been serving as secretary this amount was cut down to $3,000.

Many improvements have also been made at the "Y" and one of the finest programs of activities for boys and men inaugurated and placed in successful operation.

Other activities that attracted considerable attention was the Pet Show held earlier this year, and also the Hobby Show that was staged in the new gymnasium with hundreds of exhibits of all types of hobbies.

Aids Campaigns

In addition to his many duties as secretary of the association, Mr. Goodfellow has found time to devote to civic affairs. In 1941 he served as a member of the executive committee of the U.S.O., and up until October 1, he served as chairman of the Kingston Salvage Committee, resigning the post when he was notified that he had been called by the local draft board for army service.

Secretary Goodfellow has been serving as a member of the Board of Governors of the Kingston Rotary Club; he was a member of the A. H. Wicks Engine Co., a member of the social hygiene committee of the Ulster County TB Committee.

He was also a member of the Mendelssohn Club and of the Masonic fraternity.

Secretary Goodfellow has been engaged in "Y" work for 20 years. While in charge of the boys' division of the White Plains association he arranged a number of boys' tours both of this country and the old world. In the course of that program he conducted groups of boys on seven trips abroad and on several trips of the United States.

His last boys' tour was in 1940 when he took a group of boys on a tour of the United States visiting Grand Canyon, Hollywood, San Francisco Exposition, Seattle and the Pacific Northwest, Yellowstone National Park, Chicago and Washington, D. C.

In the resignation of Secretary Goodfellow the local "Y" loses a competent man. His duties as secretary of the "Y" and his many civic and home defense activities have made him one of the best known men in Kingston during nearly two years he has been here.

Townsendites Hear Talk By the Rev. O. R. Miller

A large crowd gathered at Mechanics' Hall, Henry street, for the regular semi-monthly session of the Kingston Townsend Club, No. 1, this week, to hear Dr. Carr Miller deliver his lecture, "Golden Secrets of Health." The Rev. O. R. Miller, twin brother of the lecturer, was also present and spoke, as did George Mutari of Saugerties and Mr. Matrocci, candidate for District Attorney in the coming election. This being the Miller's brothers 77th birthday, a huge cake, appropriately decorated for the occasion, was presented them, and later cut and served with ice cream.

Miss Mildred Niles, president of the local club and Mrs. Nellie Conlin, chairman of the extension committee, were elected by the club membership as delegates to the New York State Conference at Syracuse, Saturday, October 17, and Sunday, October 18.

Miss Niles and Mrs. Conlin reported at the recent meeting, having personally contacted 96 members for renewal of dues and turned in the secretary, Mrs. William Pomeroy $34 as a result of this effort.

Three Girls Fall Into Police Net

Staten Island Glamour Burglars Are Picked Up at Ferry Slip

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—The spree is ended but the memory lingers on for three girls who wanted to have fun and apparently did—at the expense of others.

"It was swell while it lasted," Deputy Chief Inspector Michael McDermott said Nancy Provenzanno, 17, asserted yesterday as she admitted burglarizing Staten Island homes with two younger companions to get money for "a good time around Times Square."

The blonde, zoot-suit clad girl waived examination and was held in $2,500 bail for the grand jury, while her two companions, 14 and 16, were held for appearance in children's court.

McDermott quoted Nancy as relating that she and her friends had taken $450 in cash and $2,500 worth of valuables from the Staten Island homes.

Detectives said they broke the case when two blonde girls disembarked from a Staten Island ferry from Manhattan and tried to "palm" a box of candy worth 50 cents.

Police said the oldest of the three explained their methods of operation.

The plan was to burglarize homes after determining that the occupants were away. If no one answered their knock at a door, one would climb in through a rear window and admit the others.

If someone answered, they would pretend to be looking for "Mr. Barr."

The girls would come to Manhattan to pawn or sell their loot, and then, detectives said, would go on a spree.

"We had a real good time," police quoted the 16-year-old. "We ate in the best restaurants and danced in the best hotels."

Said Nancy Provenzanno:

that two-thirds of the boys in service would have voted the Republican ticket. This meant a loss in Republican votes this year of approximately 1,500.

Records indicate, said the district attorney, that each year there are a large number of voters in Ulster county who never take the trouble to register and vote, and he urged those present to seek out these non-voters and urge upon them the importance of exercising their duty as American citizens to register and vote.

If this was done much of the votes that would not otherwise be cast, owing to the large number in the armed service, would be cast on election day.

President Bruhn in opening the first of a series of fall rallies urged the importance of registering and voting this year. For the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the Republican prospects for electing a governor were exceedingly bright, he said, and Ulster county should do its full share in electing Dewey to office, as well as electing the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

The theme of getting every voter out to register and vote was also stressed by Mr. Snyder and Mr. Stang in their talks.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

Although having a large law practice, Mr. Mauhs set the fork in practically every one of the 150 loads of hay that went into his large cow barn this year, and in the horse barn, where there is no hay fork, he pitched off something like 20 loads by hand.

He is the candidate every farmer in the 27th District should support. He knows farming, and what's more, he works at it.

Kingston High Engages Port Jervis Tonight at Stadium

Officials Expect Turnout of 2,000 For League Opener

Port Still Considered Top Team but Improved Local Eleven May Pull Big Upset; Starts 8:15

The first DUSO League football game of the 1942 season will be played under the powerful arc-lights at the municipal stadium tonight when Port Jervis and Kingston High School begin to mix it up at about 8:15 o'clock, Al Chase's Port eleven stands as favorites to win but a pretty even game has been predicted by the so-called experts. A crowd of at least 2,000 is expected.

League action continues on another front tomorrow afternoon when Newburgh Free Academy travels to meet the strong Middletown squad at Wilson Field. Despite last week's drubbing by Poughkeepsie and the loss of Tony Gobeo, the Middies are sharp favorites and should be on the long end by at least two touchdowns.

Both Port and Kingston will go into tonight's brawl after long rests. The former eleven has been idle since licking Liberty 12 to 0 a couple of weeks ago. Kingston also has been sitting tight ever since Mont Pleasant of Schenectady invaded the local ball park. The results of which, it is assured, that the local players would rather forget than be further publicized in these pages. Anyway, the Maroons hope to regain the winning side of the ledger tonight.

Aerial Game Possible

If pre-game prospects run true to form tonight's league opener might easily be turned into a general free-for-all battle in the air. It has been pretty well established that Kingston's main hope is the tossing of passes by Leland Boice. Meanwhile, Port also has a pretty fair aerial game with Frankie Adams on the throwing end. Adams has replaced Ted Salmon as the No. 1 flinger in the backfield for the Tri-State eleven.

Since the last game for the two clubs they have been giving plenty of attention to the pass department of both teams. Port has tried to polish up its weak pass defense as well as building more strength with passes on the offense. In the first game of the season against Amsterdam the Maroons proved that they had an acceptable passing attack and this has undergone much attention by Coach Ted Conwicke this week. Should Port still be weak on batting down the overhead aerials, Kingston may have something to say as to the winner of the contest tonight at the stadium.

An informant in Port writes, "Port's backfield, which has more potential power than it has had in several years, is working hard making an effort to get through those quick opening holes faster. The main criticism in the Liberty game was that they weren't quite sure of themselves in breaking through the right spot." He further adds this, "Frankie Adams, the local passer, throws the ball very accurately and if Frank can manage to put a handle on the ball Friday night, it will not be surprising to see two or three touchdowns develop from these passes."

That just about sums up Port's strength. The club has a quick and sturdy backfield composed of Ted Salmon, Steve Bullock, Frankie Adams and Johnny Lynch. Lynch and Adams are expected to do most of the ball toting for the visitors. Kingston's main job is to thwart the power plays on the ground and the expected attack from the air.

Injured Players Questionable

No definite word has been announced yet concerning the three Kingston players who have been taking it easy due to injuries. Tom Henebery, who could do a lot of damage to his opponents if he gets some proper support, still has his sore shoulder while Johnny Cesararo and Vince Guido also are on the doctor's list. Only game time will tell whether these three will be in the starting lineup.

While Coach Conwicke is pretty well satisfied to sit back and let Lee Boice do most of the passing for his club, the local mentor also seems satisfied with "Rocky" Maxson as the No. 1 ball carrier for the squad. Maxson, who possesses a lot of strength for ground gaining, never did get a chance to show his stuff in the Schenectady game but he may get going tonight. If he does, and if Boice gets his deadly aerials going into outstretched hands, Kingston can be considered as a serious threat to the favorite Port eleven tonight.

The probable lineups:

Port Jervis	Kingston
LE—Clark	Riehl
LT—Myers	Reynolds
LG—Stewart	Hansen
C—Phillips	McLaughlin
RG—Grathwohl	R. Clarke
RT—Norman	D. Allen
RE—D. Greer	Carpino
QB—Salmon	Harrell
LHB—Bullock	Henebery
RHB—Adams	or DeWitt
FB—Lynch	Maxson
	Boice

Bill Dudley Leads Pro Gridders With 272 Yards Gained

Chicago, Oct. 14 (Special)—Two rookies and a pair of veterans moved up to make their first appearance among the National Football league's ground gainers this week, but the supremacy of young Bill Dudley went unchallenged.

Dudley increased his lead over Merle Condit to 53 yards as he led the Pittsburgh Steelers to victory over Condit's Brooklyn Dodgers, and now stands well out in front with 272 yards in 44 attempts, an average of 6.2 yards per attempt.

Andy Farkas, Washington veteran, who has taken all of two seasons to regain the form that made him one of the league's greatest backs before he suffered a leg injury in training camp in 1940, gained 58 yards in 15 attempts against Cleveland to take ninth place.

His rookie, teammate, Dick Poillon, picked up 30 yards in the Cleveland game to take over 16th place in the select circle while Ted Fritsch, Green Bay full back, went into tenth place with 101 yards in 26 attempts and Bob Morrow, Cardinal full back, bucked his way through the Bear line for 25 yards and just enough to become 18th.

Tommy Thompson, of Philadelphia, and Sammy Baugh of Washington, continued to be closer than butter to bread in the passing race, with Baugh taking over first place by a margin equally as small as that by which the Eagle star led a week ago. Both have thrown five touchdown passes and are topped in this respect only by Cecil Isbell, who connected to Hutson against Detroit to run to 15 the number of consecutive league games in which he has tossed scoring aerials.

Pretoria, South Africa, has a new cotton wool factory.

New Uniforms Worn

At the Central Recreation alleys Wednesday night in the Colonial Women's League the Nekos bowlers were out on the alleys with their new and very noticeable uniforms. The girls were decked out in medium blue corduroy skirts with white blouses and lettering of the team name. The Nekos squad is composed of Margaret Mellert, captain; Thelma Burger, Cay Brennan, Mrs. Vivian Slover and Dorothy Gross. The appearance of the new uniforms, however, was marred to some degree as the Nekos representatives dropped two games to the Chez Emile keglers.

International Division

Bill Finger paced the Y. M. C. A. Mercantile League in the International Division Wednesday night at the "Y" alleys as he unloaded a 484 triple and 181 single to spark Sears to three straight wins over Matthews. The 484 was the highest rolled that night. Ostrander posted 425 for the losers.

Although dropping two games to the Terrors, the Freeman No. 2 squad had the high triple bowler when Tommy Tomshaw stood out again with a 470 three-game cluster. Tom rolled 141, 147, and 182. Howard of the Terrors hit 455 and had high single of 183.

The final match found Treadwells capturing two from Elstons with Harry Minard and Harry Gray doing the stick work for the winners. Minard poured out a 428 high triple and tied Gray with a 162 single. Edsel Flowers had 425 for Elstons.

Breitfeller Rolls 234

Steve Breitfeller's power-laden 234 single highlighted the Silver League matches at Emerick's Recreation alleys Wednesday night. Breitfeller started off with his sensational game and followed up with 189 and 146 for a 578 triple. Despite Steve's great bowling, the Joneses were tripped in three straight by Jacks. Jack Martin and Earl Sleight were high for the winners with 547 and 543. Barney Rosinski had 523. Bob Jones hit 519 for the losers. Martin's 217 was high single for the winners. Wood and Sleight rolled 203 and 202.

Teetsel's captured two from Vining and Smith as Al Goldman flashed a 559 series on scores of 168, 213 and 178. Teetsel had a 230 single and finished with 530. Harry Smith's 512 was the pacesetter for the losing squad.

Eichlers took two from the Shultis bowlers. Lacey Burger's 539 series on games of 210, 171 and 158 took honors. W. Holden of the losers rang up the highest single in the match with 211.

Robinson Rolls 248

In the Major Bowling League at the Central Recreation alleys last night the city's top-flight tenpin league was featured by some great bowling on the part of George Robinson, Johnny Ferraro and Bill Mergendahl, all of whom went over the 600 triple mark.

Robinson was the chief kegler with a 633 series and a tremendous 248 single. Robbie also bowled 191 and 194 to complete that heavy triple. His great scores helped Doblers to win two from Mickeys.

Ferraro, bowling anchor for the Trailways, came through with a lusty 244 single and a 619 series. The popular kegler rammed out other marks of 196 and 179. Despite this spectacular bowling the Trailways dropped two games to Steins.

Another great night was enjoyed by Bill Mergendahl who found the range for a 623 triple and single of 245. Bill posted other marks of 210 and 168. His kegling paced Hymes to two wins over Grunenwalds.

In the Dobler-Mickey match Robinson was aided by Mac Tiano's 580 series and a 512 by Harold Broskie. Joe Scholar rolled 539 for Mickeys while Dwight McEntee and Herb Van Deusen split the maples for 527 and 521.

P. Myers' 543 and Steve Fassbender's 538 also played a big part in the one triumph for the Trailways over Steins but the team fell short despite these pretty efficient scores. Huck Svirsky and Larry Petersen, Jr., sparked Steins with 590 and 571.

Skipping over the other games find that McEntee rolled 205 for Mickeys, Larry Petersen, Jr., had 203 for Steins, while Svirsky came on with 211 and 200. Myers had a 225 single for the Trailways. Ed Murphy posted a 200 and 529 for Grunenwalds, while McDonough had 200 and 574 for the same club. Van Alstyne poured out a cool 213 single for the bakers and a 567 series. Gil Sampson rolled 211 in one of his two games and had a 373 double. Lew Hymes rolled 506 for his club, as did Stan Winne. Joe Hoffman poured out 527. Ken Williams' 216 and 555 topped the Joneses while young Bobbie Jones had a 544. Al Kieffer collected 536. Phil Masters rolled the only 500 for the U. P. A. bowlers. Larry Guadagnola of the same squad hit 201 while T. Costello posted 217 and a 220 for a 437 double.

Iowa Cadets Appear Too Strong for the Irish; Gophers, Tulane Are Chosen

By HERB BARKER

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Taking the weekly buggy ride along the football guessing trail:

Iowa Naval-Notre Dame: Maybe there's some place along their tough schedule that Bernie Bierman's pre-flighters are going to tumble. This corner declines to even try to figure out when that's going to be. These naval outfits, with their wealth of manpower, apparently are not so susceptible to slumps as are ordinary college teams. Iowa Naval.

Tulane-Georgia: Sinkwich and Trippe give Georgia a terrific scoring punch, enough, it seems here, to give the bulldogs what edge there may be in this game. Georgia.

Princeton-Penn: The Tigers furnished a big surprise last week in the upset of Navy. It would be a much bigger one if they win this one. Penn.

Army Over Llons

Army-Columbia: With due respect for the passing prowess of Columbia's Paul Governali, this vote goes to Army.

Tennessee-Alabama: As usual this is a crucial southeastern conference clash. Two bitter rivals, each with plenty of football talent. After due consideration and with not a little trepidation Alabama.

Texas Christian-Texas A. and M.: The cadets seem to have fellen upon evil football days. T. C. U.

Washington State-Southern California: State has won three in a row; the Trojans haven't beaten anybody. Which makes it hard to justify this hunch that Southern California is due to start moving. U. S. C.

U. C. L. A.-California: This corner herewith gets off the tottering California band-wagon, probably at precisely the wrong moment. U. C. L. A.

Duquesne-North Carolina: Duquesne.

North Carolina Naval-Boston College: This guesser has found nothing but trouble in any prediction that one of the pre-flight outfits will lose. Nevertheless, just to be stubborn, Boston College.

Dartmouth-Harvard: The Crimson has yet to show any scoring punch of which Dartmouth has plenty. Therefore, Dartmouth.

Yale-Navy: Might develop into one of the day's most interesting duels. Out of the hat Navy.

Lafayette-Brown: Looks safe (or does it?) for Brown.

Penn State-Cornell: No upset either way. On the toss of the coin, Penn State.

Rams Selected

West Virginia-Fordham: You pay your money and take your choice. Fordham.

Auburn - Georgetown: Georgetown.

Indiana-Pitt: Indiana.

Northwestern-Michigan: Plenty of fireworks here. Michigan.

Purdue-Ohio State: The Boilermakers knocked off Northwestern last week and are ripe for more mischief. Still, Ohio State.

Wisconsin-Great Lakes: Staying with Wisconsin.

Minnesota - Nebraska: Both twice-beaten which, in itself, must be something of a record for these two. Minnesota.

Illinois-Iowa: On the strength of its unexpected victory over Minnesota, Illinois must be picked but beware of the Hawkeyes on a dry field when Tommy Farmer starts passing.

Southern Methodist-Temple: S. M. U.

Florida-Villanova: Villanova.

Mississippi-Louisiana State: L. S. U.

Other Big Games

Mississippi State - Vanderbilt: Vanderbilt.

Santa Clara-Oregon State: Santa Clara.

Texas-Arkansas: Texas.

Maryland-Virginia Military: V. M. I.

Baylor-Texas Tech: Baylor.

Missouri-Kansas State: Ditto Missouri.

Oklahoma - Kansas: Likewise Oklahoma.

Skipping over the chalklines otherwise: Furman over George Washington; Miami over St. Louis; Iowa State over Drake; Michigan State over Marquette; Georgia Tech over Davidson; Kentucky over Virginia Tech; Wake Forest over North Carolina State; Washington & Lee over Hampden Sydney; Georgia Naval over Pensacola; Tulsa over Washington (St. Louis); Oklahoma A. and M. over Arizona; Stanford over Idaho; Washington over Montana; Bucknell over Rutgers; Utah over Utah State; Denver over Wyoming; Colorado over New Mexico.

Dr. Stamm Will Speak At Nurses Graduation

The speaker for the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Kingston Hospital, Friday evening, October 23, is the Rev. Frederick K. Stamm, D. D., pastor of the Clinton Avenue Community Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This church represents a union of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church and the Simpson Methodist Church.

Dr. Stamm for some period of time has been the preacher on the program of the Federal Council of Churches, speaking each Sunday morning, for a five months' period, over station WEAF, sharing this work with Dr. Ralph Sockman, who speaks during the fall, winter and spring, and Dr. Stamm during the summer.

Dr. Stamm is a clear, forceful, and most interesting speaker. Many in this vicinity who have heard him over the radio, will welcome the opportunity of hearing and seeing him in person.

The public is cordially invited to attend the graduation exercises.

Good Taste Today

A CHILD'S BREAD AND BUTTER LETTER

Under ordinary circumstances it seems to me that a child old enough to go visiting alone is also old enough to be expected to write a bread and butter letter, just as she is expected to write a thank-you note for a Christmas present. The mother who asks me about this asks also whether she is expected to add a letter to that of her daughter.

I am rather confused by the words "child" and "daughter" and this of course make a difference. It also makes a difference whether she has been staying with a member of the family or someone not her mother's intimate friend. If Joan, let us say, is 10 or 12 and staying with her friend Betty whose mother is almost a stranger to Joan's mother, then the latter should very promptly write a letter at the same time, but not enclose it in the same envelope, as that written by Joan. On the other hand, if Joan is 15 or so, her mother would not write unless she has some reason for writing other than seconding her daughter's thank-you note.

By the time a girl is in her mid-teens she writes her own letter without a supplement from her mother, which would make Joan's own thanks seem inadequate. Some time later should she see Betty's mother she can tell her what a lovely time Joan had.

Signing A Hotel Register

Dear Mrs. Post: Do I register in a hotel, "Miss Mary Blank" or "Mary Blank"? I mean in the case of an unmarried woman is Mary Blank enough since I believe the title is generally understood to be Miss when the name is written like that.

Answer: In a hotel register or in any public list you write "Miss Mary Blank." But at end of note or a letter never put "Miss" before your name except in parentheses this way (Miss) Mary Blank—and only to one who does not know whether you are Miss or Mrs.

Music Teacher Asks Help

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you give me some help on this situation: I am a teacher of piano, and well established in my profession in this city. When calling the parents of my pupils on the telephone, shall I announce myself as Mr. Smith or John Smith?

Answer: Since your relationship is essentially professional rather than social, "Mr. Smith" is correct.

Present to Mother-in-Law

Dear Mrs. Post: At the New York State Jewelers Convention is was suggested that the bridegroom give a present to his new mother-in-law. What do you think of the idea?

Answer: My thought is that the sooner this idea is suppressed the better.

Be sure that your stationery and phraseology is correct whenever you write a letter. Send for Mrs. Post's booklet, "The Etiquette of Letter Writing," enclosing ten cents. Address Mrs. Post, c/o Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 75, Station O, New York.

Bells Off to War

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP)—The library chimes, the five bells that struck every quarter hour for more than 50 years on the University of Michigan campus and became famous in song and story among many generations of Michigan students, are going to be melted down for scrap. The bells, which were retired six years ago when the Baird Carillon was completed will yield more than two tons of bronze and tin when they are donated to the war effort soon.

Waste accumulated for centuries around the slate quarries of Cornwall and Wales, United Kingdom, is being utilized to manufacture camouflage paint, the Department of Commerce Reports.

Report on Convention

The Kiwanis luncheon this week was of unusual interest as President Henry D. Darrow and Vice-President George B. Matthews gave a report of the recent Syracuse Convention. The keynote of the convention was "Personal effort and Unity." Following the reports, Fred L. Van Deusen illustrated how, with modern magic, laundry work could be performed without water. Fred also showed how milk could be wrapped up for delivery in ordinary newspaper without bottles or other containers. With the assistance of Vincent G. Connelly, he also worked some very interesting card tricks.

Mother Repairs Bombers

Tucson, Ariz. (AP)—Mrs. Bonnie Heller, mother of 13 children, is repairing Army bombers in the shops at Davis-Monthan Field. Women have taken over most of the repair jobs formerly held by men. Their superiors say women often are more suited for the intricate work than men.

What You Buy With WAR STAMPS

Destroyers are the "Greyhounds of the Sea." Unarmored, these sleek, deadly ships depend upon their speed to protect them from enemy fire. Besides their guns, they carry torpedoes and depth charges. Modern destroyers burn oil and 50 cents, the price of two 25-cent War Stamps, will pay for enough fuel to drive a destroyer one mile.

Maybe you can't be aboard a destroyer when it bears down on a U-boat, but you can have the satisfaction of knowing that the money you loan Uncle Sam through the purchase of War Stamps may be providing the fuel that is turning the ship's propellers. Get in the swing of your Schools At War Program. Buy War Stamps regularly.

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

Advertising will protect your business against forgetfulness.

Judge—What is the defendant's reputation for veracity?

Witness—Excellent, your honor. I've known him to admit that he had been fishing all day and hadn't got a single bite.

A little boy had been extremely naughty, and his father told him to go to bed and he would come up a little later and settle accounts with him. Before getting into bed the child knelt on his knees by the bed and said: "Please, God, if You really do want to help a little boy in trouble, now is Your chance."

Man—You say you've worn this hat for two years?

Friend—Yes, sir, and it looks all right still. Twice I've had it cleaned and once I exchanged it in a restaurant for one that was entirely new.

Action is just as important as knowledge.

It was out in the rural regions. The rancher came home late in the evening and saw a light bobbing around his house:

Rancher (to himself)—Ha! A prowler and I'll catch him red handed.

He approached closer and saw that it was Jason, the hired man.

Jason—I'm courting Mabel.

Rancher (grumbling)—A devil of a way you go about it. When I went courting my wife I never carried a lantern.

Jason — No, sir! You couldn't have. We can all see that you didn't, sir.

We heard of a man who said: "I'm not worrying over possible war shortages of the necessities of life. I can always find a fork in the road, a dipper in the sky, a bed in a stream, a shelf of rocks, a curtain of mist, and a carpet of leaves."

Mother—What are you going to be when you grow up, Sue?

Daughter—I am going to be an old maid.

Mother (surprised) — An old maid, dear! Why?

Daughter—Because I don't think I'd like to kiss a man a hundred times and tell him he's handsome every time I go shopping. I think I'd rather earn money and buy things for myself.

Being in business now is also sort of a war.

Young Man (to a lad of about 10)—Last night at the party your sister promised to marry me. Will you forgive me for taking her away from you?

Lad—Sure. We had the party to help Sis land you.

High in the Sky

I thrill to see an airplane in the sky, a man-made bird on peaceful mission bent,
Shortening space to nothing in its flight, messenger of good will, friendly sent.
I shudder when I hear an airplane roar, a man-made dragon, bearing death and hate;
Shortening space to nothing in its flight, weapons of death and destruction as its freight.
I cannot know why such things have to be, I only know they guard the things I love;
And so I'm glad (although I'm sorry, too) for airplanes high in the skies above.

—Ursula Franklin.

The artist was of the expression school. He had just given the finishing touches to a purple and blue canvas, when his wife entered the studio:

Artist—My dear, I have just completed my landscape, and I should like you to suggest a title for it.

Artist—But why "Home"?

Wife—Because there's no place like it.

America's automotive service men are playing an important part in the nation's war effort. It is their job to "save the wheels that serve America."

The Automotive Mechanic of Yesterday
Is the VICTORY SERVICE MAN of Today

Help him to help you "SAVE THE WHEELS THAT SERVE AMERICA" by getting a skilled service check-up regularly

Take the word of millions: MORE PEOPLE GO TO CHEVROLET DEALERS FOR SERVICE than to any other dealer organization

Just how important the automotive mechanic's work is to the nation will be clear to all who consider the following facts*:

- Automobiles and trucks form the sole practicable means of transportation for war workers and war materials in many communities throughout America.
- In some sections, 78% to 100% of the workers drive by automobile to vital war plants.
- 2,314 U. S. cities, with a population of 12,524,000, depend on private cars for transportation; 54,000 communities depend entirely on motor vehicles.
- Six out of every ten farms use one car or more; 67% of farm car mileage is necessity driving.
- More than 65.2% of all war plants reporting in Michigan (a typical war production state) depend on trucks to haul their incoming and outgoing freight.
- Trucks haul nearly 100% of the milk supply of most large cities—and 58% of all livestock marketed in the U. S.
- Trucks are the sole transportation system serving our 54,000 communities not reached by railroads.

The automotive mechanic—the trained Chevrolet Victory Service Man—is the lifeguard of America's millions of cars and trucks. Help him to help you and America by getting a skilled service check-up at regular intervals.

Dean Is Released From Army Duties; Wears Beard Again

Man Mountain Discharged Because of Kidney Ailment; Army General Okays Beard

Atlanta, Oct. 16 (AP) — Man Mountain Dean, Georgia wrestler, is out of the Army, wearing his full-face beard and weighing 249 pounds instead of 317 when he enlisted several months ago.

The Man Mountain (real name Frank Leavitt)., who was discharged because of a kidney ailment, said "good old General Patton gave me back my beard." He referred to Gen. George C. Patton, his commander.

"When he saw me he said, where's your beard?" Dean explained. "I told him the Lieutenant made me shave it off. And he said, you get that beard back on. What's the use of having Man Mountain Dean in the Army if no one recognizes him?"

BoxingHeadOffers Plan to 'Freeze' Titles During War

Los Angeles, Oct. 16 (AP)—Jerry Giesler, as chairman of the California Boxing Commission, has established something of a reputation for espousing the cause of the underdog, but today he finds himself going to bat for the champions.

Giesler, in private life a prominent trial lawyer, sees no reason why a fighting man, when he swaps the padded mitts for a rifle and goes off to the wars, should find himself in danger of being deprived of whatever championship boxing baubles he may have picked up along the way.

So Giesler has proposed to Abe J. Green, New Jersey, president of the National Boxing Association, that the titles of any champions now in the armed services or who enter them subsequently, be "frozen" for the duration.

Obviously, Giesler is fearful of promotional skulduggeries to take advantage of the boxing champs who enter the services and so are unable to defend their crowns.

"If a man in the service is permitted to act as judge and jury in his own case and decides to abandon his title for the duration or otherwise because of his inability to defend it," Giesler says, "That would open the door to unpatriotic and unethical promotional activities by private individuals or enterprises, which would be unfair to the boy in particular and the public in general."

Just about everything else is frozen until the war ends, Giesler reasons, so why not boxing titles?

He asked Greene to take the matter up with the commission in the 26 states affiliated with the N. B. A.

hive said that in view of the corporation counsel's recommendation he moved that Mr. Norton be suspended as of October 10, without pay. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mayor Edelmuth said that he had been informed that Mr. Norton was now employed by Ward Brothers of Haverstraw. The mayor said that the action taken by the board in adopting the Leehive resolution was taken to protect the city from paying Mr. Norton's salary while he was employed elsewhere.

Mr. Norton was not present at the meeting yesterday and it was stated that he was out of town. Mayor Edelmuth said that several days ago Mr. Norton had informed him he was thinking of accepting a position with a firm engaged in war work, and at that time had asked for several days vacation which he, the mayor, had granted.

A communication was read from Louis Navara of 56 Navara street, who called attention to the fact that he had been doing maintenance work on that street since it was opened. He had started doing it when there were but two houses on the street, but now that there were five houses he felt the job was beyond him, and desired to deed the street to the city.

After some discussion the communication was filed and the board secretary was instructed to write Mr. Navara that under war conditions that now existed the board was unable to obtain materials needed for street improvement, and for that reason would not be able to accept the deed of the street at this time.

Cy's Diner Sidewalk

The board's attention was called to a bill of the city amounting to $250 for laying a sidewalk in front of Cy's Diner at Broadway and East Chester street. Mayor Edelmuth said that Cy's Diner was willing to pay $125, and had informed him that prior to the November election last year that the mayor had said that would be the amount that would have to be paid.

Subsequently Cy's Diner had received the bill for $250.

After some discussion the board adopted a resolution recommending that the $125 be accepted.

To Pay $700

The board after discussing the matter of the claim of $700 filed against the city by William J. Whiston in payment of land taken by the city to widen Linderman avenue, adopted a resolution recommending that the claim be paid.

A communication was read from the Stuyvesant Hotel management calling attention to the fact that two street lights in front of the hotel made the use of two bedrooms impossible as guests complained that the lights kept them awake. The request was made that the city either remove the lights or have them shaded.

The secretary of the board was instructed to send a communication to the hotel management enclosing a copy of the ordinance adopted in 1936 which prohibits the removal of street lights or the shading of the lights.

Granted Leaves

Leaves of absence for the duration of the war were granted Arthur Van Nostrand and Harold Middagh, who have been inducted into army service.

Mr. Van Nostrand was employed as a mason by the board, while Mr. Middagh was garage superintendent.

The board approved the appointment of Walter Tammany to serve as acting garage superintendent.

Chester Huston, who had charge of the maintenance of the street and signal lights, has resigned his position with the board, and yesterday the board named Walter Wilson to serve as temporary labor foreman in Mr. Huston's place.

Bills were read and audited and the board then adjourned.

ground. Sewer lines total 30 miles.

Captain Badt does not discuss detailed training the recruits will receive beyond that "they will learn the elementary fundamentals of a sailor's life at sea."

The training period of eight weeks will stress conditioning and hardening of the men. "And," warns the Captain, "the course will be so comprehensive that few will have the liberty of leaving the station for even as little as a few hours."

When Sampson reaches peak efficiency—probably around December 1—30,000 men will be in barracks. Every day 1,000 men will report for their initial taste of naval life in war time.

The first of the new sailors to arrive can see plenty of water in blue Seneca Lake, but some may be disappointed.

Not until spring will the station's training fleet of 150 Navy whale boats and at least 10 motor sailers be placed into service.

Calves for vealing and raising are scarce this fall. Pullet prices run up to $2 and there are almost none to be had locally.

Sunday, October 4, was the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Justus North, one of Shokan's popular couples. Mr. and Mrs. North were married by the Rev. Thomas Braithwaite, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's father, the late Mose Palen of Ashokan.

Current crops in the flourishing garden of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Markle include a cooking variety of soy beans which have done well. Mrs. Markle's flowers, as usual, were attractive this fall and the blooms are holding well despite the successive frosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Palen and friend, Charles Doyle, came up from Brooklyn to spend the week-end with Mr. Palen's sister, Mrs. J. North, and family. "Bob," who is production manager for the L. O. Koven firm in Jersey City, has made arrangements to sell his bungalow on the Tonche Mountain road.

Flying squirrels have made their appearance here according to one of the village residents who saw several of the strangers near his home.

San Francisco Girl Is Found In Oregon, Waits Her Daddy

Red Bluff, Calif., Oct. 16 (AP)—Brown-eyed little Vivian Miller waited impatiently in Grants Pass, Ore., for her "real daddy" today as police at Red Bluff, Calif., held a man and his wife who confessed they kidnaped the four-year-old girl. The man was quoted as saying he had always wanted a child of his own.

Vivian was found unharmed in a Grants Pass school yesterday. Almost simultaneously—though it did not become known for some time—Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont B. DuBois of Portland, Ore., were arrested near here for questioning. Several hours later DuBois, in the presence of his wife and three officials, dictated a brief statement confessing the kidnaping, said Sheriff James N. Froome. Both he and his wife signed it.

In San Francisco, Mrs. Louise Miller, the child's mother, cried for joy when informed that Vivian had been found safe. Later she talked by telephone with Vivian in Grants Pass.

"It was wonderful to hear her voice," the mother said.

"Thank God, she's well," commented Morris Miller, the child's father, a shipyard worker.

Miller accompanied two San Francisco police inspectors here today and came face to face with DuBois in the sheriff's office. He had considerable difficulty in controlling himself and officers had to hold him at one time when he muttered, "just let me have one crack at him; that's all I want, just one crack at the guy."

The two inspectors, Marvin E. Donell and John O'Connell, said DuBois reiterated his confession and told them he had served one term at McNeil Island Prison on a Dyer Act charge, and two terms in San Quentin, one for forgery and another for automobile theft.

Bennett Pledges Conservation and Flood Programs

Continued Policies Would Be His Aim, He Tells Public; First Week of Drive Ends

Enroute with Bennett, Oct. 16 (AP)—His pledge on the record to continue the present administration's conservation and flood control- policies, Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., today neared the end of the first of three weeks of formal campaigning for governor.

Praising the progress in conservation under Governors Smith, Roosevelt and Lehman, the Democratic nominee said in a speech at Binghamton last night:

"It is a record I shall strive to match when I assume office January first."

The attorney general, who visits Cortland, Norwich and Oneonta today before continuing to New York tomorrow, paid special tribute to Alfred E. Smith and said that the former governor started the present conservation program which has resulted in enlarging the forest preserve, control of fires and conservation of the state's fish and game.

"The great reforestation program was inaugurated by another great governor," he declared, "our present Commander in Chief, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Recalling the disastrous floods of 1935 in southern and central New York which killed 43 persons and caused damage estimated at $40,000,000, Bennett told of the steps taken by Governor Lehman to inaugurate a long-range flood control program.

"The basic flood control law of this state is considered a model legislation," he declared.

Bennett stressed again his experience in the affairs of New York state, and saying flood control in southern New York was more than half completed, asserted:

"During the next four years—and when I say four, you know I mean four—I shall apply my knowledge of these problems for prompt conclusion of the work."

It was the third successive night the attorney general had inferred his Republican opponent for governor, Thomas E. Dewey, might not serve out the four years if elected because of possible national political ambitions in 1944.

Also speaking at the Binghamton rally were Lieut. Governor Charles Poletti, candidate for re-election; Mrs. Flora D. Johnson, nominee for Representative-at-Large, and Arthur Ruland, running for Congress from the 34th District.

Poletti emphasized the Democratic administration's record on state finances which turned a $94,000,000 deficit in 1933 into a $54,000,000 surplus this year.

Mrs. Johnson pledged that, if elected, she would work "to secure justice" for the farmer.

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Selling dried up to a considerable extent in today's stock market although buying timidity persisted as a recovery handicap.

Scattered favorites managed to edge forward at the start, but dealings were even slower than in the preceding session. Near the fourth hour advances and declines of fractions were pretty well balanced.

Scant bullish inspiration was discerned in the battle news from Stalingrad and the Solomons but a little bidding cropped up on the idea the two-day stumble provided at least a partial correction of the lengthy upswing and that the list was in a much healthier technical position.

Bonds were ragged and most commodities lower.

Among resistant stocks were Southern Railway, Santa Fe, Western Union, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, du Pont and Kennecott. On the offside most of the time were American Telephone, down a point or more, N. Y. City Trolley Tracks Bring $6,316.70 Net

City Engineer James G. Norton in his September report to the Board of Public Works, filed with the board Thursday, reported that work had been completed on removal of car tracks, except for the stretch to be left in on Broadway, between West Chestnut street and East Chester streets.

The total weight of rails removed was 265 tons of grooved rails and 70 tons of "T" rails. The net amount to be received for the rails totaled $6,316.70, while the cost to the city in furnishing the materials to relay the open trenches was approximately $5,660. The labor cost was borne by the local W. P. A.

The balance of approximately $650 left from the sale of the rails is placed in the city of Kingston W. P. A. account.

Some of the old trolley rails taken up from the streets have been relaid in armp camps, while other type of rails not so usable were sold to a steel mill designated by the government for remelting.

suggestion or Representative Kilday (D-Tex), grants a delay only to students requesting it. Kilday conceded it could result in the wholesale deferment of every 18 or 19-year-old student until next July 1.

Of the estimated 2,500,000 additional men the legislation would make liable to the draft, the committee was told that some 1,000,000 would be cancelled out because of enlistments or rejections.

The great majority of the estimated 450,000 men to be inducted in December of this year, Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey had explained, would come from the teen-age group if the law were passed. The rest, he said, probably would be used up by April, at which time it would be necessary to call married men without children and single men with dependents.

How the scholastic deferment amendment would affect his plans could not be determined, but committee members pointed out he had submitted his estimates amid indications that the amendment would be approved.

Amendment Is Drafted

To make sure that selective service boards carried out Hershey's announced intention to draft no married men while single men were available, the committee adopted another Kilday amendment to make drafting follow lines based on the degree of dependency.

Under the amendment, no married man would be inducted while there were single men available in his state; no married men with children would be put into uniform while there were available married men without children.

Under present policy, Kilday said, a local board drafts married men if it has no available single men, while an adjoining board in the same community may have more single men than it needs.

Also approved were amendments to permit the enlistment of youths over 17 without parental consent. Consent now is required for enlistments under 21.

added, newspaper and magazine comment follows the same pattern. Accordingly, it said, President Roosevelt asked that the report be prepared to provide "factual background for an informed public opinion."

Conceding that figures were somewhat dry, Mr. Roosevelt told his press conference he was eager to see what the press would do with the report.

The report broke down non-war expenditures into various categories. New services since 1932, for instance, will spend an estimated $1,969,000,000, compared with $2,805,000,000 in the last fiscal year and a high of $3,916,000,000 in 1939. These new services embraced the agricultural adjustment program, unemployment relief, social security and railroad retirement.

For services in existence prior to 1932 the government expects to expend $2,225,000,000 in the current fiscal period, against $2,321,000,000 last year and a high of $4,031,000,000 in 1936.

The nine regular cabinet departments will account for expenditures of $621,000,000 this year—the highest total for the 11 years covered by the report. The "old services include public works, veterans benefits, etc.

the head of the fleeing man. The shot was low and struck Mr. Neff inflicting fatal injuries. Powers then made up his mind to remain in the house and let the officers shoot him before he would surrender. However he dodged shots fired at him and stood siege during the day until driven out by gas.

It has been Powers contention throughout the case that the first shot was fired accidentally but that he had fired the second shot to stop Mr. Neff.

Wilhelm Million, charged with escape from Wallkill prison, was sentenced to a year in jail on his plea of guilty.

Edward C. Smith of Saugerties, charged with failure to support his minor children was also sentenced to a year in jail on his plea of guilty and Judge Conway suspended sentence and placed Smith on probation.

Conference Agrees To Retain Victory 5 Per Cent Levy

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—A joint Senate-House conference committee agreed today to retain in the new revenue bill the 5 per cent victory tax on all income of individuals over $624 yearly.

Making only minor changes in the form of the levy as it was adopted by the Senate, the committee acted to cut out of the bill a comparable 5 per cent withholding tax on net income previously voted by the House for the advance collection of income taxes. This latter levy would have been increased to 10 per cent in 1944.

Acting swiftly on controversial sections of the bill, the conferees agreed to fix the credit for dependents under the regular income tax at $350 instead of the $400 level voted by the House and the Senate figure of $300.

This reduced the prospective revenue from the bill by an undetermined amount.

In approving the victory tax, which would be collected at the source from most wage and salary earners beginning next January 1, the conference committee agreed to exclude from the withholding provisions fees paid to such public officials as sheriffs and others.

It also instructed experts to draft language to regulate the collections on persons whose earnings largely are from commissions and moved toward clarification of provisions requiring employers to furnish employes with receipts for the amounts withheld from the latters' pay checks.

Rosendale Plans Yuletide Gifts For Service Men

At a regular meeting of the Woman's Club held recently at the home of Mrs. E. M. Huben, the club voted to sponsor a project of sending a Christmas gift to each boy from the entire township who is in the service. At present there are 70 boys in the service from the township of Rosendale, with a large number already overseas.

The club has planned to spend approximately $2 on each gift and with the cost of mailing so high, the cost of financing this project is considerable.

A committee from the Women's Club is personally contacting executives of each organization and also the business men of the town in an effort to obtain their financial support. However, we feel that most individuals in the town will consider it an honor and a privilege to make some contribution to give the men in service a Merry Christmas and to let the boys know that their friends are thinking of them at the Yuletide season.

Contributions may be mailed to or turned in at the office of Mrs. Anna Auchmoedy, Main street, Rosendale, by Monday, October 19. In order to make this project a success, the club needs the rank, names and address of each man that is in the service. If you are a parent, relative or friend, you are asked to send this information to Mrs. Stephen Huben, Rosendale, on or before Monday, October 19.

The American system of getting information to the people would collapse or the cost to the subscriber would be prohibitive if advertising was stopped, says the Department of Commerce.

Total of 9,061 Feet of New City Sewer Line Laid

There had been a total of 9,061 feet of the new siphon line for the sewage disposal plant laid up until the last of September, according to the monthly report of City Engineer, James G. Norton, filed with the Board of Public Works at its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon.

Of that total 6,304 feet were of 20-inch steel pipe; 833 of 24-inch concrete pipe, and 1,924 feet of 20-inch concrete pipe.

The city engineer also reports the Larch street sewer project as 62 per cent completed, and outfall in the Roosevelt Park area as 20.5 per cent finished.

Excavation had been completed from the railroad tracks to Meadow street on Hasbrouck avenue; curb reset in the same area, and bottom stone placed from railroad to the middle of the block between East Union and Meadow streets.

Ferry street had been patched over siphon line trench and worst holes filled on Abeel street and Wilbur avenue.

Useful and decorative light in the home during 1941 consumed about four billion kilowatt-hours of electricity, an all-time high rate of use, the Department of Commerce reports.

Poultry to Strut

Boston, Mass., Oct 16—From Blue Cochin Bantam to huge Toulouse goose, every fowl exhibited at the 94th Boston Poultry Show, to be held January 13-17, inclusive, at the Boston Garden, will be strutting his stuff for Uncle Sam. This was assured when the show's board of director's meeting here October 14 voted to offer $8,500 in war stamp as premiums to the hundreds of exhibitors and at the same time approved plans for a war bond auction as a special daily feature and urged attending poultrymen and exhibitors "to purchase war bonds and stamps to the extent of their capacity through the facilities provided at the show."

About 20,000 of London's wartime child population of 200,000 went to school voluntarily during the summer holidays.

Shenandoah Flood Hits Third of Virginia

Richmond Va., Oct. 16 (AP)—Floods disrupted road, rail and power service in a third of Virginia today after forcing hundreds of persons to evacuate their homes. Hardest hit was the Shenandoah Valley where the Shenandoah river swept far out of its banks and caused property loss approximating that done by devastating floods in 1936. Waters put Harrisonburg's two municipal plants out of operation and left that city in darkness last night.

Construction activity is at a high level in Cuba.

Overseas gifts must be mailed on or before October 31st.

FLASHES OF LIFE . . . . . .

(By The Associated Press)

Inspiration

Pittsburgh—Corp. Earl Oxford, former movie actor who sings "I Left My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen" in the all-Army stage production currently showing here, has a ready explanation for the emotion he's able to put into the song. "I just think of my last girl I sang to professionally before going into the Army," the corporal said. The girl? Lana Turner.

Minces No Words

Philadelphia—Faint heart, Private Victor Williams mused, never won Janet Blair.

So, entering a letter-writing contest with other servicemen at the Stage Door Canteen—the winner to take the curvaceous screen star to a movie premier tonight—he wrote:

"I'd be a damned fool if I didn't want to take you out."

Naturally, he won.

Fraud

Atlanta—Freshmen at the Atlanta Junior College are questioning the campaign methods of Sara Richardson, successful candidate for class president. She promised kisses to all her supporters, they charge, and paid off with candy kisses.

Buried Treasure

Miami, Fla.—Mrs. George Lyons well-stuffed piggy bank, 16 inches long and six inches high, is due for drastic reduction. All for Uncle Sam, who asked every one to put pennies back into circulation and thus free copper for war needs. The piggy bank gave up 5,300 pennies, collected over the past 18 months.

Gold!

New York—Repairman Frank Holser went to the pit of an elevator shaft—and did he get a lift!

He found $1,117 in cash.

It'll be his if no one claims it in six months.

Going and Coming

Los Angeles—William N. Moxley saw smoke swirling from the mattress in the rear of his truck. He pell-melled for the fire house two blocks away.

As he whirled up to the station, he narrowly avoided a collision with the fire truck hurrying out on a call.

It was on its way to meet him.

SOMETIMES WE THINK THEY'RE TOO DARNED GOOD!

Yes, sir, sometimes when we get to thinking about our classified ads, we think they're too good for our own good.

You see, it's like this. Someone call 2200 and inserts an ad. "Run it 3 days," they say. Then after the ad appears just One night, they call and say, "Take my ad out. I had about 50 calls last night."

So we lose money, for the other insertions. Now, do you see why we sometimes think our classified ads are "too good."

Kingston High Engages Port Jervis Tonight at Stadium

Officials Expect Turnout of 2,000 For League Opener

Port Still Considered Top Team but Improved Local Eleven May Pull Big Upset; Starts 8:15

The first DUSO League football game of the 1942 season will be played under the powerful arc-lights at the municipal stadium tonight when Port Jervis and Kingston High School begin to mix it up at about 8:15 o'clock. Al Chase's Port eleven stands as favorites to win but a pretty even game has been predicted by the so-called experts. A crowd of at least 2,000 is expected.

League action continues on another front tomorrow afternoon when Newburgh Free Academy travels to meet the strong Middletown squad at Wilson Field. Despite last week's drubbing by Poughkeepsie and the loss of Tony Gobeo, the Middies are sharp favorites and should be on the long end by at least two touchdowns.

Both Port and Kingston will go into tonight's brawl after long rests. The former eleven has been idle since licking Liberty 12 to 0 a couple of weeks ago. Kingston also has been sitting tight ever since Mont Pleasant of Schenectady invaded the local ball park. The results of which, it is assured, that the local players would rather forget than be further publicized in these pages. Anyway, the Maroons hope to regain the winning side of the ledger tonight.

Aerial Game Possible

If pre-game prospects run true to form tonight's league opener might easily be turned into a general free-for-all battle in the air. It has been pretty well established that Kingston's main hope is the tossing of passes by Leland Boice. Meanwhile, Port also has a pretty fair aerial game with Frankie Adams on the throwing end. Adams has replaced Ted Salmon as the No. 1 flinger in the backfield for the Tri-State eleven.

Since the last game for the two clubs they have been giving plenty of attention to the pass department of both teams. Port has tried to polish up its weak pass defense as well as building more strength with passes on the offense. In the first game of the season against Amsterdam the Maroons proved that they had an acceptable passing attack and this has undergone much attention by Coach Ted Conwicke this week. Should Port still be weak on batting down the overhead aerials, Kingston may have something to say as to the winner of the contest tonight at the stadium.

An informant in Port writes, "Port's backfield, which has more potential power than it has had in several years, is working hard making an effort to get through those quick opening holes faster. The main criticism in the Liberty game was that they weren't quite sure of themselves in breaking through the right spot." He further adds this, "Frankie Adams, the local passer, throws the ball very accurately and if Frank can manage to put a handle on the ball Friday night, it will not be surprising to see two or three touchdowns develop from these passes."

That just about sums up Port's strength. The club has a quick and sturdy backfield composed of Ted Salmon, Steve Bullock, Frankie Adams and Johnny Lynch. Lynch and Adams are expected to do most of the ball toting for the visitors. Kingston's main job is to thwart the power plays on the ground and the expected attack from the air.

Injured Players Questionable

No definite word has been announced yet concerning the three Kingston players who have been taking it easy due to injuries. Tom Henebery, who could do a lot of damage to his opponents if he gets some proper support, still has his sore shoulder while Johnny Cesararo and Vince Cuido also are on the doctor's list. Only game time will tell whether these three will be in the starting lineup.

While Coach Conwicke is pretty well satisfied to sit back and let Lee Boice do most of the passing for his club, the local mentor also seems satisfied with "Rocky" Maxson as the No. 1 ball carrier for the squad. Maxson, who possesses a lot of strength for ground gaining, never did get a chance to show his stuff in the Schenectady game but he may get going tonight. If he does, and if Boice gets his deadly aerials going into outstretched hands, Kingston can be considered as a serious threat to the favorite Port eleven tonight.

The probable lineups:

Port Jervis	Kingston
LE—Clark	Riehl
LT—Myers	Reynolds
LG—Stewart	Hansen
C—Phillips	McLaughlin
RG—Grathwohl	R. Clarke
RT—Norman	D. Allen
RE—D. Greer	Carpino
QB—Salmon	Harrell
LHB—Bullock	Henebery or DeWitt
RHB—Adams	Maxson
FB—Lynch	Boice

Bill Dudley Leads Pro Gridders With 272 Yards Gained

Chicago, Oct. 14 (Special)—Two rookies and a pair of veterans moved up to make their first appearance among the National Football league's ground gainers this week, but the supremacy of young Bill Dudley went unchallenged.

Dudley increased his lead over Merle Condit to 53 yards as he led the Pittsburgh Steelers to victory over Condit's Brooklyn Dodgers, and now stands well out in front with 272 yards in 44 attempts, an average of 6.2 yards per attempt.

Andy Farkas, Washington veteran, who has taken all of two seasons to regain the form that made him one of the league's greatest backs before he suffered a leg injury in training camp in 1940, gained 58 yards in 15 attempts against Cleveland to take ninth place.

His rookie, teammate, Dick Poillon, picked up 30 yards in the Cleveland game to take over 16th place in the select circle while Ted Fritsch, Green Bay full back, went into tenth place with 101 yards in 26 attempts and Bob Morrow, Cardinal full back, bucked his way through the Bear line for 25 yards and just enough to become 18th.

Tommy Thompson, of Philadelphia, and Sammy Baugh of Washington, continued to be closer than butter to bread in the passing race, with Baugh taking over first place by a margin equally as small as that by which the Eagle star led a week ago. Both have thrown five touchdown passes and are topped in this respect only by Cecil Isbell, who connected to Hutson against Detroit to run to 15 the number of consecutive league games in which he has tossed scoring aerials.

New Uniforms Worn

At the Central Recreation alleys Wednesday night in the Colonial Women's League the Nekos bowlers were out on the alleys with their new and very noticeable uniforms. The girls were decked out in medium blue corduroy skirts with white blouses and lettering of the team name. The Nekos squad is composed of Margaret Mellert, captain; Thelma Burger, Cay Brennan, Mrs. Vivian Slover and Dorothy Gross. The appearance of the new uniforms, however, was marred to some degree as the Nekos representatives dropped two games to the Chez Emile keglers.

International Division

Bill Finger paced the Y. M. C. A. Mercantile League in the International Division Wednesday night at the "Y" alleys as he unloaded a 484 triple and 181 single to spark Sears, to three straight wins over Matthews. The 484 was the highest rolled that night. Ostrander posted 425 for the losers.

Although dropping two games to the Terrors, the Freeman No. 2 squad had the high triple bowler when Tommy Tomshaw stood out again with a 470 three-game cluster. Tom rolled 141, 147, and 182. Howard of the Terrors hit 455 and had high single of 183.

The final match found Treadwells capturing two from Elstons with Harry Minard and Harry Gray doing the stick work for the winners. Minard poured out a 428 high triple and tied Gray with a 162 single. Edsel Flowers had 425 for Elstons.

Breitfeller Rolls 234

Steve Breitfeller's power-laden 234 single highlighted the Silver League matches at Emerick's Recreation alleys Wednesday night. Breitfeller started off with his sensational game and followed up with 189 and 146 for a 578 triple. Despite Steve's great bowling, the Joneses were tripped in three straight by Jacks. Jack Martin and Eurt Sleight were high for the winners with 547 and 543. Barney Rosinski had 523. Bob Jones hit 519 for the losers. Martin's 217 was high single for the winners. Wood and Sleight rolled 203 and 202.

Teetsel's captured two from Vining and Smith as Al Goldman flashed a 559 series on scores of 168, 213 and 178. Teetsel had a 230 single and finished with 530. Harry Smith's 512 was the pacesetter for the losing squad.

Eichlers took two from the Shultis bowlers. Lacey Burger's 539 series on games of 210, 171 and 158 took honors. W. Holden of the losers rang up the highest single in the match with 211.

Robinson Rolls 248

In the Major Bowling League at the Central Recreation alleys last night the city's top-flight tenpin league was featured by some great bowling on the part of George Robinson, Johnny Ferraro and Bill Mergendahl, all of whom went over the 600 triple mark.

Robinson was the chief kegler with a 633 series and a tremendous 248 single. Robbie also bowled 191 and 194 to complete that heavy triple. His great scores helped Doblers to win two from Mickeys.

Ferraro, bowling anchor for the Trailways, came through with a lusty 244 single and a 619 series. The popular kegler rammed out other marks of 196 and 179. Despite this spectacular bowling the Trailways dropped two games to Steins.

Another great night was enjoyed by Bill Mergendahl who found the range for a 623 triple and single of 245. Bill posted other marks of 210 and 168. His kegling paced Hymes to two wins over Grunenwalds.

In the Dobler-Mickey match Robinson was aided by Mac Tiano's 580 series and a 512 by Harold Broskie. Joe Scholar rolled 539 for Mickeys while Dwight McEntee and Herb Van Deusen split the maples for 527 and 521.

P. Myers' 543 and Steve Fassbender's 538 also played a big part in the one triumph for the Trailways over Steins but the team fell short despite these pretty efficient scores. Huck Svirsky and Larry Petersen, Jr., sparked Steins with 590 and 571.

Skipping over the other games find that McEntee rolled 205 for Mickeys, Larry Petersen, Jr., had 203 for Steins, while Svirsky came on with 211 and 209. Myers had a 225 single for the Trailways. Ed Murphy posted a 200 and 529 for Grunenwalds, while McDonough had 200 and 574 for the same club. Van Alstyne poured out a cool 213 single for the bakers and a 567 series. Gil Sampson rolled 211 in one of his two games and had a 373 double. Lew Hymes rolled 506 for his club, as did Stan Winne. Joe Hoffman poured out 527. Ken Williams' 216 and 555 topped the Joneses while young Bobbie Jones had a 544. Al Kieffer collected 536. Phil Masters rolled the only 500 for the U. P. A. bowlers. Larry Guadagnola of the same squad hit 201 while T. Costello posted 217 and a 220 for a 437 double.

Iowa Cadets Appear Too Strong for the Irish; Gophers, Tulane Are Chosen

By HERB BARKER

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Taking the weekly buggy ride along the football guessing trail:

Iowa Naval-Notre Dame: Maybe there's some place along their tough schedule that Bernie Bierman's pre-flighters are going to tumble. This corner declines to even try to figure out when that's going to be. These naval outfits, with their wealth of manpower, apparently are not so susceptible to slumps as are ordinary college teams. Iowa Naval.

Tulane-Georgia: Sinkwich and Trippe give Georgia a terrific scoring punch, enough, it seems here, to give the bulldogs what edge there may be in this game. Georgia.

Princeton-Penn: The Tigers furnished a big surprise last week in the upset of Navy. It would be a much bigger one if they win this one. Penn.

Army Over Lions

Army-Columbia: With due respect for the passing prowess of Columbia's Paul Governali, this vote goes to Army.

Tennessee-Alabama: As usual this is a crucial southeastern conference clash. Two bitter rivals, each with plenty of football talent. After due consideration and with not a little trepidation Alabama.

Texas Christian-Texas A. and M.: The cadets seem to have fallen upon evil football days. T. C. U.

Washington State-Southern California: State has won three in a row; the Trojans haven't beaten anybody. Which makes it hard to justify this hunch that Southern California is due to start moving. U. S. C.

U. C. L. A.-California: This corner herewith gets off the tottering California band-wagon, probably at precisely the wrong moment. U. C. L. A.

Duquesne-North Carolina: Duquesne.

North Carolina Naval-Boston College: This guesser has found nothing but trouble in any prediction that one of the pre-flight outfits will lose. Nevertheless, just to be stubborn, Boston College.

Dartmouth-Harvard: The Crimson has yet to show any scoring punch of which Dartmouth has plenty. Therefore, Dartmouth.

Yale-Navy: Might develop into one of the day's most interesting duels. Out of the hat Navy.

Lafayette-Brown: Looks safe (or does it?) for Brown.

Penn State-Cornell: No upset either way. On the toss of the coin, Penn State.

Rams Selected

West Virginia-Fordham: You pay your money and take your choice. Fordham.

Auburn - Georgetown: Georgetown.

Indiana-Pitt: Indiana.

Northwestern-Michigan: Plenty of fireworks here. Michigan.

Purdue-Ohio State: The Boilermakers knocked off Northwestern last week and are ripe for more mischief. Still, Ohio State.

Wisconsin-Great Lakes: Staying with Wisconsin.

Minnesota - Nebraska: Both twice-beaten which, in itself, must be something of a record for these two. Minnesota.

Illinois-Iowa: On the strength of its unexpected victory over Minnesota, Illinois must be picked but beware of the Hawkeyes on a dry field when Tommy Farmer starts passing.

Southern Methodist-Temple: S. M. U.

Florida-Villanova: Villanova.

Mississippi-Louisiana State: L. S. U.

Other Big Games

Mississippi State - Vanderbilt: Vanderbilt.

Santa Clara-Oregon State: Santa Clara.

Texas-Arkansas: Texas.

Maryland-Virginia Military: V. M. I.

Baylor-Texas Tech: Baylor.

Oklahoma - Kansas: Likewise Oklahoma.

Skipping over the chalklines otherwise: Furman over George Washington; Miami over St. Louis; Iowa State over Drake; Michigan State over Marquette; Georgia Tech over Davidson; Kentucky over Virginia Tech; Wake Forest over North Carolina State; Washington & Lee over Hampden Sydney; Georgia Naval over Pensacola; Tulsa over Washington (St. Louis); Oklahoma A. and M. over Arizona; Stanford over Idaho; Washington over Montana; Bucknell over Rutgers; Utah over Utah State; Denver over Wyoming; Colorado over New Mexico.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

Waterbury, Conn.—Ruby Garcia, 130, Puerto Rico, won by technical knockout from Willie Roach, 129, Wilmington, Del. (4).

Elizabeth, N. J.—Joe Carter, 158, Rome, N. Y., outpointed Lorenzo Strickland, 168, New York (6).

Jersey City—Tami Mauriello, 186, New York, knocked out Italo Colonello, 192, New York (2).

Good Grid Policy

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 16 (AP)—Dallas High School students think the good neighbor policy is something to shout about. Polytechnic High of Mexico City will have its football team here Saturday night to play Crozier Tech. A group of students have united to form a cheering section for the visitors. That isn't all, either. The yells will be in Spanish.

Gridder Is Honored

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 16 (AP)—Jim Kelleher, first string end from San Antonio, Tex., but out with an arm injury, also is first captain of the corps of cadets. It is the highest military honor a cadet can receive and, was held in the past by such as Generals Wainwright, Pershing and MacArthur.

Dr. Stamm Will Speak At Nurses Graduation

The speaker for the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Kingston Hospital, Friday evening, October 23, is the Rev. Frederick K. Stamm, D. D., pastor of the Clinton Avenue Community Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This church represents a union of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church and the Simpson Methodist Church.

Dr. Stamm for some period of time has been the preacher on the program of the Federal Council of Churches, speaking each Sunday morning, for a five months' period, over station WEAF, sharing this work with Dr. Ralph Sockman, who speaks during the fall, winter and spring, and Dr. Stamm during the summer.

Dr. Stamm is a clear, forceful, and most interesting speaker. Many in this vicinity who have heard him over the radio, will welcome the opportunity of hearing and seeing him in person.

A CHILD'S BREAD AND BUTTER LETTER

Under ordinary circumstances it seems to me that a child old enough to go visiting alone is also old enough to be expected to write a bread and butter letter, just as she is expected to write a thank-you note for a Christmas present. The mother who asks me about this asks also whether she is expected to add a letter to that of her daughter.

I am rather confused by the words "child" and "daughter" and this of course make a difference. It also makes a difference whether she has been staying with a member of the family or someone not her mother's intimate friend. If Joan, let us say, is 10 or 12 and staying with her friend Betty whose mother is almost a stranger to Joan's mother, then the latter should very promptly write a letter at the same time, but not enclose it in the same envelope, as that written by Joan. On the other hand, if Joan is 15 or so, her mother would not write unless she has some reason for writing other than seconding her daughter's thank-you note.

By the time a girl is in her mid-teens she writes her own letter without a supplement from her mother, which would make Joan's own thanks seem inadequate. Some time later should she see Betty's mother she can tell her what a lovely time Joan had.

Signing A Hotel Register

Dear Mrs. Post: Do I register in a hotel, "Miss Mary Blank" or "Mary Blank"? I mean in the case of an unmarried woman is Mary Blank enough since I believe the title is generally understood to be Miss when the name is written like that.

Answer: In a hotel register or in any public list you write "Miss Mary Blank." But at end of note or a letter never put "Miss" before your name except in parentheses this way (Miss) Mary Blank—and only to one who does not know whether you are Miss or Mrs.

Music Teacher Asks Help

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you give me some help on this situation: I am a teacher of piano, and well established in my profession in this city. When calling the parents of my pupils on the telephone, shall I announce myself as Mr. Smith or John Smith?

Answer: Since your relationship is essentially professional rather than social, "Mr. Smith" is correct.

Present to Mother-in-Law

Dear Mrs. Post: At the New York State Jewelers Convention is was suggested that the bridegroom give a present to his new mother-in-law. What do you think of the idea?

Answer: My thought is that the sooner this idea is suppressed the better.

Be sure that your stationery and phraseology is correct whenever you write a letter. Send for Mrs. Post's booklet, "The Etiquette of Letter Writing," enclosing ten cents. Address Mrs. Post, c/o Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 75, Station O, New York. (Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Bells Off to War

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP)—The library chimes, the five bells that struck every quarter hour for more than 50 years on the University of Michigan campus and became famous in song and story among many generations of Michigan students, are going to be melted down for scrap. The bells, which were retired six years ago when the Baird Carillon was completed will yield more than two tons of bronze and tin when they are donated to the war effort soon.

Willing farmers explained that it would take several weeks to dig their sweet potato crops labor being scarce and what not. Result: the Navy set what is probably a record in digging six bomper crops of sweet potatoes.

San Francisco Girl Is Found In Oregon, Waits Her Daddy

Red Bluff, Calif., Oct. 16 (AP)—Brown-eyed little Vivian Miller waited impatiently in Grants Pass, Ore., for her "real daddy" today as police at Red Bluff, Calif., held a man and his wife who confessed they kidnaped the four-year-old girl. The man was quoted as saying he had always wanted a child of his own.

Vivian was found unharmed in a Grants Pass school yesterday. Almost simultaneously—though it did not become known for some time—Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont B. DuBois of Portland, Ore., were arrested near here for questioning. Several hours later DuBois, in the presence of his wife and three officials, dictated a brief statement confessing the kidnaping, said Sheriff James N. Froome. Both he and his wife signed it.

In San Francisco, Mrs. Louise Miller, the child's mother, cried for joy when informed that Vivian had been found safe. Later she talked by telephone with Vivian in Grants Pass.

"It was wonderful to hear her voice," the mother said.

"Thank God, she's well," commented Morris Miller, the child's father, a shipyard worker.

Miller accompanied two San Francisco police inspectors here today and came face to face with DuBois in the sheriff's office. He had considerable difficulty in controlling himself and officers had to hold him at one time when he muttered, "just let me have one crack at him; that's all I want, just one crack at the guy."

The two inspectors, Marvin E. Donell and John O'Connell, said DuBois reiterated his confession and told them he had served one term at McNeil Island Prison on a Dyer Act charge, and two terms in San Quentin, one for forgery and another for automobile theft.

Bennett Pledges Conservation and Flood Programs

Continued Policies Would Be His Aim, He Tells Public; First Week of Drive Ends

Enroute with Bennett, Oct. 16 (AP)—His pledge on the record to continue the present administration's conservation and flood control policies, Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., today neared the end of the first of three weeks of formal campaigning for governor.

Praising the progress in conservation under Governors Smith, Roosevelt and Lehman, the Democratic nominee said in a speech at Binghamton last night:

"It is a record I shall strive to match when I assume office January first."

The attorney general, who visits Cortland, Norwich and Oneonta today before continuing to New York tomorrow, paid special tribute to Alfred E. Smith and said that the former governor started the present conservation program which has resulted in enlarging the forest preserve, control of fires and conservation of the state's fish and game.

"The great reforestation program was inaugurated by another great governor," he declared, "our present Commander in Chief, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Recalling the disastrous floods of 1935 in southern and central New York which killed 43 persons and caused damage estimated at $40,000,000, Bennett told of the steps taken by Governor Lehman to inaugurate a long-range flood control program.

"The basic flood control law of this state is considered a model legislation," he declared.

Bennett stressed again his experience in the affairs of New York state, and saying flood control in southern New York was more than half completed, asserted:

"During the next four years—and when I say four, you know I mean four—I shall apply my knowledge of these problems for prompt conclusion of the work."

It was the third successive night the attorney general had inferred his Republican opponent for governor, Thomas E. Dewey, might not serve out the four years if elected because of possible national political ambitions in 1944.

Also speaking at the Binghamton rally were Lieut. Governor Charles Poletti, candidate for re-election; Mrs. Flora D. Johnson, nominee for Representative-at-Large, and Arthur Ruland, running for Congress from the 34th District.

Poletti emphasized the Democratic administration's record on state finances which turned a $94,000,000 deficit in 1933 into a $54,000,000 surplus this year.

Mrs. Johnson pledged that, if elected, she would work "to secure justice" for the farmer.

Two Soldiers Are Drowned

Fort Devens, Mass., Oct. 16 (AP)—Six soldiers were recovering today from immersion suffered when an improvised raft capsized during a stream-crossing problem yesterday and plunged two of their comrades to death in the Nashua river. Drowned were Private Rudko, 25, of (1974 Crotona avenue), the Bronx, New York city, and Private Harold E. Hansen, 23, of (434 Evergreen avenue) Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rowboats Missing

Erna Hellman of Eddyville reported to the sheriff's office that two 16-foot metal rowboats were missing. The boats, gray with green trim and with air compartments, have been gone about three weeks. A search along the creek and advertising has failed to locate them.

New York, Oct. 16 (AP)—Selling dried up to a considerable extent in today's stock market although buying timidity persisted as a recovery handicap.

Scattered favorites managed to edge forward at the start, but dealings were even slower than in the preceding session. Near the fourth hour advances and declines of fractions were pretty well balanced.

Scant bullish inspiration was discerned in the battle news from Stalingrad and the Solomons but a little bidding cropped up on the idea the two-day stumble provided at least a partial correction of the lengthy upswing and that the list was in a much healthier technical position.

Bonds were ragged and most commodities lower.

Among resistant stocks were Southern Railway, Santa Fe, Western Union, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, du Pont and Kennecott. On the offside most of the time were American Telephone, down a point or more, N. Y. Central, General Motors, General Electric, Johns-Manville, Texas Co., Goodrich, Anaconda, Caterpillar Tractor and Boeing.

City Trolley Tracks Bring $6,316.70 Net

City Engineer James G. Norton in his September report to the Board of Public Works, filed with the board Thursday, reported that work had been completed on removal of car tracks, except for the stretch to be left in on Broadway, between West Chestnut street and East Chester streets.

The total weight of rails removed was 265 tons of grooved rails and 70 tons of "T" rails. The net amount to be received for the rails totaled $6,316.70, while the cost to the city in furnishing the materials to relay the open trenches was approximately $5,660. The labor cost was borne by the local W. P. A.

The balance of approximately $650 left from the sale of the rails is placed in the city of Kingston W. P. A. account.

Some of the old trolley rails taken up from the streets have been relaid in army camps, while other type of rails not so usable were sold to a steel mill designated by the government for remelting.

Senate Committee Recommends Draft For 18-Year Group

suggestion of Representative Kilday (D-Tex), grants a delay only to students requesting it. Kilday conceded it could result in the wholesale deferment of every 18 or 19-year-old student until next July 1.

Of the estimated 2,500,000 additional men the legislation would make liable to the draft, the committee was told that some 1,000,000 would be cancelled out because of enlistments or rejections.

The great majority of the estimated 450,000 men to be inducted in December of this year, Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey had explained, would come from the teen-age group if the law were passed. The rest, he said, probably would be used up by April, at which time it would be necessary to call married men without children and single men with dependents.

How the scholastic deferment amendment would affect his plans could not be determined, but committee members pointed out he had submitted his estimates amid indications that the amendment would be approved.

Amendment Is Drafted

To make sure that selective service boards carried out Hershey's announced intention to draft no married men while single men were available, the committee adopted another Kilday amendment to make drafting follow lines based on the degree of dependency.

Under the amendment, no married man would be inducted while there were single men available in his state; no married men with children would be put into uniform while there were available married men without children.

Under present policy, Kilday said, a local board drafts married men if it has no available single men, while an adjoining board in the same community may have more single men than it needs.

Also approved were amendments to permit the enlistment of youths over 17 without parental consent. Consent now is required for enlistments under 21.

F.D.R. Says U. S. Spends 78 Billions

added, newspaper and magazine comment follows the same pattern. Accordingly, it said, President Roosevelt asked that the report be prepared to provide "factual background for an informed public opinion."

Conceding that figures were somewhat dry, Mr. Roosevelt told his press conference he was eager to see what the press would do with the report.

The report broke down non-war expenditures into various categories. New services since 1932, for instance, will spend an estimated $1,969,000,000, compared with $2,805,000,000 in the last fiscal year and a high of $3,916,000,000 in 1939. These new services embraced the agricultural adjustment program, unemployment relief, social security and railroad retirement.

For services in existence prior to 1932 the government expects to expend $2,225,000,000 in the current fiscal period, against $2,321,000,000 last year and a high of $4,031,000,000 in 1936.

The nine regular cabinet departments will account for expenditures of $621,000,000 this year—the highest total for the 11 years covered by the report. The "old services include public works, veterans benefits, etc.

Conference Agrees To Retain Victory 5 Per Cent Levy

Washington, Oct. 16 (AP)—A joint Senate-House conference committee agreed today to retain in the new revenue bill the 5 per cent victory tax on all income of individuals over $624 yearly.

Making only minor changes in the form of the levy as it was adopted by the Senate, the committee acted to cut out of the bill a comparable 5 per cent withholding tax on net income previously voted by the House for the advance collection of income taxes. This latter levy would have been increased to 10 per cent in 1944.

Acting swiftly on controversial sections of the bill, the conferees agreed to fix the credit for dependents under the regular income tax at $350 instead of the $400 level voted by the House and the Senate figure of $300.

This reduced the prospective revenue from the bill by an undetermined amount.

In approving the victory tax, which would be collected at the source from most wage and salary earners beginning next January 1, the conference committee agreed to exclude from the withholding provisions fees paid to such public officials as sheriffs and others.

It also instructed experts to draft language to regulate the collections on persons whose earnings largely are from commissions and moved toward clarification of provisions requiring employers to furnish employes with receipts for the amounts withheld from the latters' pay checks.

Total of 9,061 Feet of New City Sewer Line Laid

There had been a total of 9,061 feet of the new siphon line for the sewage disposal plant laid up until the last of September, according to the monthly report of City Engineer, James G. Norton, filed with the Board of Public Works at its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon.

Of that total 6,304 feet were of 20-inch steel pipe; 833 of 24-inch concrete pipe, and 1,924 feet of 20-inch concrete pipe.

The city engineer also reports the Larch street sewer project as 62 per cent completed, and outfall in the Roosevelt Park area as 20.5 per cent finished.

Excavation had been completed from the railroad tracks to Meadow street on Hasbrouck avenue; curb reset in the same area, and bottom stone placed from railroad to the middle of the block between East Union and Meadow streets.

Ferry street had been patched over siphon line trench and worst holes filled on Abeel street and Wilbur avenue.

Useful and decorative light in the home during 1941 consumed about four billion kilowatt-hours of electricity, an all-time high rate of use, the Department of Commerce reports.

Freeman Photo

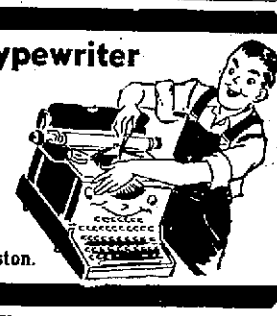

Last night at the Holy Name Church in Wilbur, a testimonial meeting was held to honor the Rev. Charles J. McCabe, pastor of the parish for the past 16 months, who has been called away to take over the parish at Millbrook. Poultry to Strut

Boston, Mass., Oct 16—From Blue Cochin Bantam to huge Toulouse goose, every fowl exhibited at the 94th Boston Poultry Show, to be held January 13-17, inclusive, at the Boston Garden, will be strutting his stuff for Uncle Sam. This was assured when the show's board of director's meeting here October 14 voted to offer $8,500 in war stamp as premiums to the hundreds of exhibitors and at the same time approved plans for a war bond auction as a special daily feature and urged attending poultrymen and exhibitors "to purchase war bonds and stamps to the extent of their capacity through the facilities provided at the show."

About 20,000 of London's wartime child population of 200,000 went to school voluntarily during the summer holidays.

Shenandoah Flood Hits Third of Virginia

Richmond Va., Oct. 16 (AP)—Floods disrupted road, rail and power service in a third of Virginia today after forcing hundreds of persons to evacuate their homes. Hardest hit was the Shenandoah Valley where the Shenandoah river swept far out of its banks and caused property loss approximating that done by devastating floods in 1936. Waters put Harrisonburg's two municipal plants out of operation and left that city in darkness last night.
